Vol. 18. HARRISBURG, PA., WEDNESDAY, MAY 8, 1935 No. 59

SENATE

WEDNESDAY, May 8, 1935.

The Senate met at 11 o'clock A. M.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Thomas Kennedy) in the chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. William E. Howard, D. D., offered the following prayer:

Our Heavenly Father, we are standing on the threshold of Mothers' Day, one of our most suggestive and sacred holidays, set apart for our special observance by the Legislature of our State and by the Congress of our nation.

What tender memories this day will revive! How it will carry each of us back to his childhood experience: to the fireside surrounded by familiar faces, the sweetest and most beautiful being that of mother. She it was who made home mean so much. To her we brought our joys and sorrows, our victories and defeats, and to her we told our most sacred secrets, finding her ever willing to hear and ever quick to sympathize.

We love and honor our mothers if they still survive. We cherish and revere their memories if they have departed from us. May our thoughts of home and mother make us better men, better husbands, better fathers, better citizens and better legislators. Help us all to live the lives our mothers would have us live, both in public and in the privacy of home. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

MEMORIAL SERVICES FOR THE HONORABLE JAMES S. BOYD, LATE SENATOR FROM THE TWELFTH DISTRICT

The Senate met at two thirty o'clock P. M.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Thomas Kennedy) in the Chair.

The PRESIDENT. This being the time fixed by resolution of the Senate for holding memorial services in memory of the Honorable James S. Boyd, late Senator from the Twelfth District, the Senate will be in order and the services will be opened with prayer by the Chaplain.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. William E. Howard, D. D., offered the following prayer:

O God, in this hour of sweet and sorrowful quietude our trust in Thee and our love for Thee remain steadfast. We come today thanking Thee for the ties of friendship and brotherhood which bound the hearts of many here present to the life of him in whose memory this service is being held. His removal by death has cast a pall of gloom over the souls of all who knew and loved him.

We cherish the remembrance of his stalwart figure and his staunch, sturdy manhood. True as steel to his friends, faithful ever to his convictions, widely conversant with the affairs of his own country and those of many other nations of the world, he was well equipped for statesmanship. His genial personality, his winning smile, his kindly words, his cheery greetings—these drew his colleagues to him and impelled their honor and respect.

Comfort, O God, his companion and all those who were bound to him by the ties of blood and domestic life. Fill the place made vacant in their home and their hearts by Thy gracious presence and grant unto them the comfort that Thou alone canst give.

Bless this Senate where he served his constituents so long, so ably and so well. May the influence of his faithful stewardship be a benediction upon the heads of those who remain and upon him who has taken up his mantle.

And help us, our Father, not to think of him as dead, but as "just away," in a land where there is no sorrow; where partings never come, nor tears make dim the eyes.

We ask these blessings in the name of Him who was the Man of Sorrows and acquainted with grief, and who by his resurrection conquered death for us. Amen.

Mr. BEAN offered the following resolution, which was twice read.

Whereas, Our Fellow Senator, James Slingluff Boyd, member of the Senate of Pennsylvania for the Twelfth District, died March 13th, 1935; and

Whereas, his colleagues in the Senate are desirous of publicly attesting their friendship for this loyal, choice companion;

Therefore, Be it Resolved, That the Senate of Pennsylvania record its acknowledgment of his kindly and courteous disposition, his determined and persistent endeavor, his faithful administration of every trust, his willingness at all times to help and advise, his fidelity and integrity, as well, of the loss which this distinguished Body suffers along with the State at large;

And Resolved, That we, the members of the Senate, tender our sympathy to the members of his family, and that we use this means of expressing our full appreciation of his friendship.

We direct that a copy of this resolution, properly attested, be sent to his family.

Committee.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

Mr. BEAN. Mr. President, gentlemen of the Senate: While the shadows of evening fell about two months ago, the chariot swung low and the spirit of Jim Boyd, strong in faith and high in courage, was carried home.

"E'en as he trod that day to God, so walked he from his birth
In simpleness, and gentleness, and honor, and clean mirth."

The Athenians walked among the statues of their heroes and kept themselves familiar with their deeds.

So we do well to draw near our mighty dead.

Sir Francis Bacon said, "If he have not a friend, he may quit the stage."

This group of Senators, acquaintances and friends of Jim Boyd gather here this afternoon to publicly attest our friendship for this loyal, choice companion.

We do not come here to mourn, but rather to lift a prayer to Almighty God that it was possible for us to have walked with this man.

"I cannot say, and I will not say
That he is dead, he is just away,
With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand,
He has wandered into an unknown land,
And left us dreaming.
How very fair it needs must be since he lingers there."

Someone has said, "In the hearts of those I love, let my headstone be." "Moderate praise used with opportunity, and not vulgar is that which doeth the good."

And Solomon saith: "He that praiseth his friend aloud, rising early, it shall be to him no better than a curse."

"Praise after all is but the reflection of virtue, but, it is as the glass or body which giveth the reflection."

Towering above the fevers and alarms of the hectic present, the figure of this man is a promise of the ideals, translated into achievement, inherent in the spirit of America, and an everlasting challenge to the increasing fulfillment of the American dream.

In the career of James Slingluff Boyd we recognize many qualities which lend distinction to American citizenship.

In his character he displayed the most loyal devotion, and in all relations he exemplified truth, generosity, high-mindedness, and a noble ignorance of anything unworthy of a gentleman.

With never a thought of himself, anxious always to serve, ready at all times to do, faithful, conscientious, he met his every obligation with a full conception of his responsibility.

His life, characterized as it was, by its manhood, its fearlessness, was a life well worthy of generous remembrance and faithful emulation.

His departure has taken with it something out of our lives, but it leaves to us, his friends, a fragrant memory of a useful, honorable, well spent life.

All who knew him loved him.

His very entrance into a group brought with it a sense of light, of gaiety and life.

Can't you hear him in this very hour say:

"God let us laugh because of carefree hours,
That filled the past with color and with light.
Let us remember gardens sweet with flowers,
And stars, like silver music in the night."

"Let us remember words that have been spoken,
And other, golden words, long left unsaid,—
Let us forget, dear God, that hearts are broken,
Let us remember happiness instead."

His gentle consideration and unselfish thought for others united in forming such a personality that it was a privilege to have known him.

So—

"We'll hide his loving memory in our hearts,
We'll follow in the pathway that he trod;
We'll make each day another step upon
The stairway leading up to him and God."

A mountain is a mystery, and so was Jim Boyd. It has fissures which would disfigure the beauty of a hill, but which cause no blemish upon its massive nobility. There are sheltered nooks where flowers grow and streamlets sparkle in the sunlight, but nearby there are huge masses of denuded rock which tell of the harsh attrition of earlier times. The clouds that gather about its summit lend it an air of loneliness and melancholy; the storms beat upon it with the swift strokes of lightning and the deep cries of thunder, but it remains unmoved, unshaken; in all moods, in all mists, its mission is the same. The same God who made the mountain made the man, and his ways are past finding out.

Here is one of Jim's favorite poems:

"God send us men whose aim will be,
Not to defend some worn-out creed,
But to live out the laws of Christ
In every thought, and word and deed.

God send us men alert and quick,
His holy precepts to translate,
Until the laws of Christ become
The laws and habits of the State.

God send us men! God send us men!
Patient, courageous, strong and true,
With vision clear and mind equipped,
His will to learn, His work to do.

God send us men with hearts ablaze,
All truth to love, all wrong to hate;
These are the patriots nations need,
These are the bulwarks of the State."

Jim Boyd was this sort of man.

May His Grace lead him gently by the hand.

Mr. NORTON. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, opposite the National Capitol is a shaft of granite which marks the tomb, the last resting place, of the unknown soldier. Day by day a member of the Regular Army of the United States, with measured tread, paces back and forth before that tomb. Hard by is an open-air temple modeled after that of ancient Greece, and over its marble columns is carved the Latin inscription "Dulce et decorum est pro patria mori". The Roman poet may have thought that it was beautiful and pleasant to die for one's country, but we in this great country feel that it is better to live for one's country. We lay no wreath upon a tomb this afternoon, but we are gathered here to pay a tribute to one who served his country, who served his district, and who served this great Commonwealth well.

Towering over every man in this Senate, his giant frame encased a heart that was warm and large and generous; to know him was to love him. It was my privilege to place his name in nomination for that exalted position, President Pro Tempore of this body; and, being a neighbor, as it were, we were, perhaps, drawn together more closely than other members of this Senate. Beneath that magnetic smile of his was hidden a keen and active mind, and rarely did he exhibit it except to those who knew him.

We are here this afternoon, as has been well said, not to mourn but to pay a tribute to one of the autstanding members of this Senate, my friend and colleague, James S. Boyd.

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, this is an hour for serious thought and meditation as we turn from the strife of political differences to the level of unanimous accord in the common brotherhood of man. Suddenly the voice of argument has been stilled. The shadow of death has stalked through this Chamber. James S. Boyd is no more. His work is done. We are here to commemorate his memory and that I may be permitted to offer a tribute of respect is a privilege that serves to cement the friendship that existed between the late Senator and myself from the day I first met him. The remarks that I may make are but a brief testimonial which I believe are expressive of the sentiment which pervades the hearts of every Senator of this body who intimately knew our departed colleague.

James S. Boyd was a kind, loyal and unselfish friend. He had the good fortune to be born of a well known family and through education, environment and a deep sense of humanity, lived a life of generous good will from which it would have been difficult to depart. His strength of character was as strong as was his physique. He was always vigorous, always forceful and his truthfulness left no misunderstandings.

My own love for him was strengthened by his utter contempt of shams. He led his life and said his say, regardless of social meanings or future political preferment. Perhaps this is why he was trusted and honored by the people who knew him best,—his home folks. And after all, is not the noble life the one who ignores personal gain, to serve and sacrifice for others. He gave attention to the man of low estate as readily as he did to those of high degree. Long after I have finished my course in this Body, and in contemplating on the friendships I acquired, my mind will revert to the genial, kindly and lovable companionship of Senate James S. Boyd. The keynote of his life was the golden rule. "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you." Such a soul reflects to us a man among men and the friendliness of God who gave it.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, Members of the Senate, and the family of Senator Boyd: When the news of Jim Boyd's death came to Harrisburg, not only the members of the Senate were stunned, but everyone in the City of Harrisburg whoever came in contact with him felt this loss, and I wonder sometimes if grief is not a selfish thing. We grieve because we have lost something and we grieve because we have lost the companionship of Jim Boyd, and we grieve more deeply than we usually do in the loss of a friend when that friend occupied a place in our lives that provided for us something that no one else could give. We all know that Jim Boyd had a fine human side, a fine understanding of the rights of others, a fine tolerance upon everything, and Jim Boyd was a real Liberal. Then he had that delightful sense of humor that we all enjoyed, and the things that Jim did to help us pass away the hours when we were not engaged in the passing of legislation or the turmoil of politics. He gave unselfishly, not because he enjoyed it so much, but because we did.

You know Jim Boyd did not think so much of the material side of life. He had the philosophy that that was the least important of all, that the human side of life was the fine side, and in these days of economic stress, when we begin to take an inventory of our world's goods, I think we all stress the material side too much. When we make an inventory, let us add to that inventory the friends that we have made and the service we have rendered, the joy that we have given others, and Jim Boyd was rich in all of these. He was a millionaire, yes a billionaire, in friendships. He was a billionaire in the service that he rendered to others and the joys that he had given to others during his whole lifetime. He had the heart of a giant and yet he was like a boy. He could work and he could play, and, of course, we all regard his death at such an age, when he could have gone down into the sunset of life and enjoyed the companionship of his boy and of all the fine things. But, after all, we are consoled by the thought that Jim lived a full life in the short time that he was on this earth.

Many people could live to be a hundred years of age and not enjoy the same things that Jim Boyd did. He lived a full and complete life. He was a tower, and with all that a statesman and a true friend. He combined his lighter side. He had real ability. Many of us have watched him in committees, when he could analyze bills with very little study. He was a graduate of a University, but he graduated from a University which is greater than book-learning, and that was the University of Experience. I think he had a post-graduate course in the University of Experience.

Then we know his loyalty to his friends, and it was one of the finest things in his life that he stuck fast to his friends. And then we cannot forget, none of us can, the fine companionship of his wife. I never knew a couple who were so devoted to each other, and Jim Boyd was just taken care of as though he was a boy. Day in and day out, sunshine and rain, early and late, his companion was at his side watching him, and he deeply appreciated and was grateful, even more perhaps than Mrs. Boyd really knew, of the fine hand with which she guided him. We all miss Jim Boyd of course, but none of us will miss him like Mrs. Boyd and his family. We do not understand that some of our loved ones are taken away from us, and we cannot understand why, but we cannot question, it is God's will and not ours.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

STATEMENT BY MR. WITKIN

Mr. WITKIN asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, on page five of today's "Inquirer" in column three there appears the following statement: "McAtee" — — referring to one Leo T. McAtee of Clearfield — — "declared that Mrs. Mountz — —" referring to from the statement immediately above Mrs. Ella J. Mountz — — "contributed forty thousand dollars to the campaign fund of Judge M. Ward Fleming of Centre County." I have just received a long distance phone call from Judge M. Ward Fleming requesting that on the floor of this House, on his behalf I vehemently deny this statement. He tells me that I should tell this House that Mrs. Ella J. Mountz did not contribute one cent toward his campaign, that not only did she not contribute any money to his campaign, but that she worked for his opponent who ran against him and did everything within her power to bring about his defeat. He has no quarrel to find with her on account of that because that is her right, was her right and was her prerogative, but he certainly did not want the fact to go forth that one who opposed him so bitterly, or anyone, contributed any sum of money to his campaign when that fact is not so.

He further advised me that he believed that he has information that he believes to be true that instead of contributing to his campaign, the lady referred to, Mrs. Ella J. Mountz, contributed to the campaign of his opponent.

Mr. SHUGARTS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, on the article read by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin, the title stating that Mr. Leo T. McAtee is from Clearfield is not true. Mr. McAtee is from Clearfield County. He is from Madeira, but not from Clearfield.

SENATE MESSAGE

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time the message of the Senate which was postponed yesterday.

The message of the Senate was read by the Clerk as follows:

REQUESTING HOUSE TO RECALL RESOLUTION No. 143

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, May 7, 1935.

Whereas, the Senate on Monday, May 6, 1935, concurred in a Concurrent Resolution, bearing Serial No. 198, inadvertently and without appreciating the full purport and effect of the said Resolution, and

Whereas, it is the sense of the Senate that said Resolution may have effects and consequences not intended either by the framers of the Resolution or by the Senate when it so concurred, and now therefor

Be It Resolved, That it is the sense of this Senate that said Resolution should receive the careful and reliberate consideration of both the Senate and the House of Representatives, and for that purpose the House of Representatives be and is hereby respectfully requested to take proper and appropriate action to recall the said Resolution from the Governor for the purpose aforesaid.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives.

RESOLUTION

RECALLING RESOLUTION 143 FROM THE GOVERNOR

Mr. Ruth offered the following resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 8, 1935.

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That House Resolution No. 143, Printer's No. 965, be recalled from the Governor for further consideration.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin, will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, as I understand the situation, this Senate resolution bearing a certain number was called up. Now, the paper that was just sent to the desk, is that another resolution or is it an amendment to the original resolution?

The SPEAKER. The Chair wishes to inform the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin, that the first resolution which was read was the resolution from the Senate requesting that House Resolution No. 143 be recalled, and the resolution just introduced by the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth, carries out that request of the Senate.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, may I ask whether the Senate resolution requesting the House to recall it, is that merely a Senate resolution or is it a concurrent resolution?

The SPEAKER. For the information of the gentleman from Philadelphia the Chair will read the Senate resolution. In the opinion of the Chair it is not a concurrent resolution, but the sense of the resolution seems to imply that it requires the consent of the House. The Chair will read the resolution.

(The resolution of the Senate was again read by the Chair.)

The SPEAKER. Inasmuch as the original resolution was a House resolution and the Senate requests the House to recall that resolution the resolution just introduced by the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth, is a concurrent resolution and the appropriate action is that the resolution start in this body.

Mr. WITKIN. Then, Mr. Speaker, as I understand the situation, and I would like the Chair to advise me if I am correct, the Senate resolution called up by the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth, is not now before this House, but the resolution just introduced in compliance with that Senate resolution, to wit, the resolution of the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth, is the resolution now before the House.

The SPEAKER. That is correct. The resolution introduced by the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth, is now before the House. The Senate resolution was just informative in character.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, will state his point of order.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, the point of order is that the resolution presented by the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth, is out of order, for the reason that resolution 143 is improperly in the hands of the Governor officially, and is therefore not subject to recall.

The point I am making is of vital concern to all of those interested in the integrity of parliamentary procedure. There has been a tendency to vest in the executive not only control of the actions of the General Assembly but also the veto power, not upon legislative intent, gentlemen of the House, but upon legislative intentions, and there is a vital distinction between the two.

Those of you who have read resolution 143 recognize that it is nothing more or less than an expression of an attitude of mind. The passage of resolution 143 affects the legal status of no one and as the resolution stands is inoperative.

Now then, this resolution cannot be properly in the hands of the Governor, because he cannot make this resolution operative by his signature of approval. If the Governor signs this resolution, the things which this resolution proposes doing, cannot be accomplished except as, if and when enabling legislation is passed, so I say to you that the resolution is inoperative. Now, I am submitting the proposition that the Governor is not vested with the power to veto an intention that the legislature may have in mind. House Resolution No. 143 must be absolutely interpreted by lines 15 to 21 on page six; "That the General Assembly shall pass during this session necessary legislation to carry out the various phases of this resolution and other matters necessary—" and so forth.

Now, you may argue that lines 4 to 12 of the other "resolved" place that obligation upon the Speaker, but I submit to the lawyers of this House that in view of lines 15 to 21, that obligation does not become operative until the second "resolved" has been carried into effect.

Now, this is an important point; we have been legislating for several terms by means of resolutions embodying, Mr. Speaker, in some instances, legislative intent, and, in other instances, simply an intention upon the part of the Legislature, and the resolutions embodying legislative intent and the resolutions embodying an intention upon the part of the Legislature have been accorded exactly the same treatment and there is a fundamental difference between the two.

Why, the situation, gentlemen of the House, is absurd. You know and I know that every line of this resolution is invalid up until the time the legislature acts on the proposals in lines 15 to 21, and I am seriously opposed to writing into the decision made by this Legislature that if the House of Representatives wants to declare its intention of passing certain laws that there is virtue vested in either a legislative veto or a legislative approval and I say to you that since the Governor's signature cannot validate this resolution and since the failure of the Governor to sign it cannot invalidate it, that it has no business in his office, is improperly there, and that this House has no precedent proper for recalling it from his hands.

The SPEAKER. In ruling on the point of order raised by the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, the Chair reads for the information of the House Article III, Section 26 of the Constitution of Pennsylvania:

"Every order, resolution or vote, to which the concurrence of both Houses may be necessary, except on questions of adjournment, shall be presented to the Governor and before it shall take effect, be approved by him."

In Commonwealth v. Griest, 396 Pa. it was held that the orders, resolutions and votes, which must be submitted to the Governor are, and only can be such as relate to and are a part of the business of legislation, as provided for and regulated by the terms of Article III of the Constitution. This same principle is supported in Armstrong v. King, 281 Pa. 207; also Taylor v. King, 284 Pa. 235.

In an opinion by Attorney General Brown, 1915, page 3, he stated:

"That not all joint or concurrent resolutions passed by the Legislature must be submitted to the Governor for his approval, but only such as make legislation or have the effect of legislating, i.e., enacting, repealing or amending laws or statutes, or which have the effect of committing the state to a certain action or which provide for the expenditure of public money. Resolutions which are passed for any other purpose, such as the appointment of a committee by the Legislature to obtain information on legislative matters for its future use or to investigate conditions in order to assist in future legislation, are not required to be presented to the Governor for action thereon."

Attorney General Woodruff approved the conclusions of Attorney General Brown above cited in 7 D. & C. 672.

In Resolution 143, Printer's No. 965, the first resolve clause, Section (a), provides that two members of the proposed committee shall be appointed by the Governor.

The second resolve clause proposes a committee of three members of the House, and three members of the Senate, together with the Executive Director of the Emergency Relief Board (who is an administrative officer appointed by the Governor), to perform administrative duties of passing on salary increases and personnel and all other matters pertaining to the State Emergency Relief Administration.

The last resolution commits the General Assembly to a definite course of legislative action. Unless the Governor were in accord with this resolution, the Assembly could have no assurance that this course to which it pledged itself could be carried out.

The Chair is, therefore, of the opinion that Resolution 143 very definitely commits the State to certain action pertaining to the administration of relief directly affects the administrative branch of Government; furthermore it requires the Governor to appoint members of a committee which could not be done without his consent, and that the resolution is legislative in character; for these reasons this resolution was properly submitted to the Governor for his approval and the point of order is not well taken.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Franklin, Mr. Moomaw.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Franklin, Mr. Moomaw, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MOOMAW. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Franklin, Mr. Moomaw, being the sponsor of Resolution No. 143, may I ask if the gentleman is in favor of recalling it from the Governor.

Mr. MOOMAW. Mr. Speaker, I am still of the opinion that the general thought of my resolution should be, in whatever manner is possible, both from the legislative and constitutional standpoint, carried into effect. If there are points that are unconstitutional in connection with this resolution, that is, if those points were deleted and yet the resolution in its intended purpose put through, I would consent to have it reconsidered by recalling it from the Governor's office.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, do I, therefore, understand the gentleman to state that he is willing to have this resolution recalled so that this House might act upon those parts of the resolution that the gentleman deems to require revision insofar as their constitutionality is concerned, but that in principle he is still for the resolution?

Mr. MOOMAW. Mr. Speaker, I am.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it appears as rather peculiar to me that a resolution sponsored by the Democratic majority in this House and passed by this House is now up for recall without a word of explanation being made by any member of the Democratic majority. I believe that the Democratic majority of this House owes it to the House and owes it to the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to give us some reason or cause why they have acceded so readily to the Republican majority controlled Senate in its request that we go along in recalling this resolution. It is not very often in this House during this Session that we find the Democratic majority of this House taking the advice and counsel of the Republican Senate. I believe that men ought to meet situation when they arise, and if there is any particular reason for so generously bowing to the will of the Republican controlled Senate, we ought to hear a word from some of the leaders of the Democratic majority as to why this agreement with the Senate meets with their approval. We of the minority will make our explanation; we will tell why we will vote or why I will request the Republican membership to vote to recall this resolution from the Governor. When this resolution was presented on Monday night, there were accusations made that politics was playing a great part in the relief administration of Pennsylvania. This resolution dealt practically with that question. We of the Republican minority went along with this Democratic resolution because we thought and because we believed then as we do now, that politics ought to and should be kept out of relief, and that any investigation or any resolution that went toward the accomplishment of that end ought to meet with our approval.

However, it is true, as the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, said the other night, the resolution went through too hastily and many of us did not realize the import and the importance of that resolution. It is our belief after careful consideration of the Moomaw resolution that instead of clearing the waters it would muddy the waters. Instead of taking politics out of relief, it would throw relief into politics and politics into relief. We believe that it is bad in principle and the Republican party is opposed to the intermeddling by the Democrats or Republicans with the administration of relief.

We believe that the relief administrator, Mr. Johnson, ought to be upheld if he is keeping politics out of relief, whether he be a Democratic appointee or a Republican appointee, and I say for the Republican minority of this House that so long as relief is kept out of politics and so long as the present administrator will do so, we will stand solidly by him, despite, perhaps, an apparent mistake, in voting for this resolution on Monday night. We will now cooperate in order to bring it back.

I want to say further that I believe it an ill timed resolution for this reason, there is a joint investigating committee investigating relief in Pennsylvania. That committee is working arduously and diligently, and they are bringing to light the facts that the people of Pennsylvania ought to know.

That Committee will make its report. It is composed of members of both Houses, as all investigating committees in order properly to investigate should be composed here and that committee will make its report and we trust it will be an intelligent and proper report upon which this House can take action, and, so, members of the House, in conclusion, I want to say to you, at the expense of reiteration, we of the minority are in favor of bringing this resolution back, away from the Governor's desk, with the firm belief that politics ought to be kept out of relief, and that we want to be a party in so doing.

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, this resolution passed Monday evening. The members of the House had no opportunity to read or understand it. One part of the resolution set up members of the House and of the Senate as civil officers which is unconstitutional in itself.

As far as the principle and the spirit of the resolution is concerned, I am one hundred per cent for it. As far as politics in relief is concerned, I do not believe we should have any politics in relief. I do know that the majority members of the House believe that the Pinchot political setup on the relief program is still in effect, and I believe we should recall the resolution from the Governor, cut out the unconstitutional matters and see what we can do with it.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I believe that before we recall this resolution we should have a more definite statement of policy at the hands of the majority leader and his associates in this House. The gentleman from Philadelphia is mistaken; this House did not pass this resolution casually. What the members of this House thought was "Here is a resolution condemning the John-sonized administration of State relief and they said 'we are for it.'"

Now, we are recalling the resolution from the Governor's office. We don't commit ourselves blindly into the hands any definite party. What does the majority propose doing with this relief problem? What is the attitude of His Excellency the Governor with reference to the problems with which every member of this Legislature is troubled? If the Governor's office desires to communicate with this Legislature, it might go further and let us know what is in the mind of the Executive and what is in the mind of the majority on the side of the House.

If you will take your resolution and read the Whereas'es, whereas No. 1, is true; whereas No. 2 is true; whereas No. 3, is true; and whereas Nos. 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8 all whereases are true, and the resolved are not worth the paper they are written on.

The Governor's office says "Come and get it out of my office." Now, we say this, "Mr. Governor, we will take it out of your office and we will lay it on the table perhaps."

Then what?

If the majority have an answer to this problem of relief that has been bedeviling every member of the Democratic party, this morning would be a mighty fine time to lay the cards on the table and to tell us where we are going and what we may expect from His Excellency, the Governor, and what we may expect from the Democratic party of this House regarding this relief problem. It is time we faced it fairly and squarely.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I believe I understood the gentleman from Philadelphia to say that politics was not in relief nor should it be in relief; is that correct?

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman understood incorrectly.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman from Philadelphia how he would answer this particular situation that exists in my county where ninety percent of the people on relief are Republicans?

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I know nothing about the gentleman's county, and I do not know whether ninety per cent of the people in his county are Republicans, or whether ten per cent are Democrats, or vice versa. It is unfair of the gentleman to expect me to answer a question concerning a situation regarding relief in a county of which I know absolutely nothing. I am neither a soothsayer nor a miracle worker, nor a prophet. If the gentleman will permit me to read a report concerning the question of relief in his county, I might be in position to answer him.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I respect very much the answer of the gentleman from Philadelphia, but it just so happens that that is the condition, and I asked the question simply because the gentleman made the statement that politics does not exist in relief.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman asked me a question at the beginning. He asked me whether I did not make that statement and I told him that I did not make it. I did not make the statement that politics was not in relief; I did make the statement that politics should not be in relief, but I didn't make the statement that the gentleman put into my mouth.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I beg the gentleman's pardon on this particular question. It is a matter of fact that the condition does exist in our county. Thank you very much Mr. Witkin.

Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, that is a condition that does exist in our county. It so happens that very recently we had an examination held for one investigator in the county. Twenty citizens on our county took that examination. The result of that examination is just exactly what this resolution calls for, and that is that in that case the result of the examination was that a young lady received the appointment, who comes from one of our wealthy families in the county, and that inasmuch as in the examination there were people who took the examination and passed with very high marks, the appointment was not available for them, and we are here to object to the fact that it does not exist in the case where it has been proven in our county. It will exist as long as we submit to turning down resolutions such as are before this House.

Now, it is important that this House go on record, — — well it has gone on record, — — it is important that we support those investigations, and if we fail to do that we are doing nothing more than supporting the present setup of emergency relief which the majority members of this House believe is, absolutely necessary, and in that fact we have a right to encourage and support this resolution.

If there are objections because of constitutional illegalities, then we are supposed to submit to those constitutional objections, but I am saying this, that it is important that we at this time, inasmuch as these investigations have started, to carry out and support anything that will pertain to enlightening the people back home on the methods that are now in force with regard to the operation of our emergency relief.

Recently I visited our Emergency Relief headquarters and objected to a manager that we had in our emergency relief setup in Mercer County, and they told me that it was only because this man was capable and so efficient and the only man that they could see that could possibly carry out our emergency relief.

I asked the question whether it was a fact that out of forty thousand some odd hundreds of people, there would be only one man in the county who could carry out the policies of the emergency relief. The point was well taken by our emergency relief director, and I say this, that these people have a right to have representation in carrying out our emergency relief setup in the various counties and when this comes before the members of the House, it is absolutely important that they take a stand and make known to their constituents back home that they are supporting measures carrying out the emergency relief program for their benefit and not retarding measures which are before the House to do that same thing.

Mr. REISING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it would appear to me that the charge that this resolution did not proceed to full consideration on Monday night is correct. It would furher appear to me that while we are all anxious to have a complete improvement and renovation of the relief system of the state, at the same time we must not let our enthusiasm run away with our common sense, because at this time in the midst of these various investigations that are taking place throughout the state, none of them or few of them have been wholly completed.

and until such time as these investigations have been completed in the various county units and then gone over by the state relief investigation committee, no intelligent conclusions nor any intelligent report can be made on the subject, so I for one do not feel like going along and hanging a man before he is completely tried.

We only have half of the evidence in, and many charges have been made against the director of the state relief, and I want to say that many of the things that have been said, to my personal knowledge, are lacking in fact, because he has been very courteous and reasonable and has given evidence of his good will toward helping to bring this thing about by the simple fact that he has fallen heir to a condition in Pennsylvania that there is not a man in this state big enough to clear up in four months. So I ask that you go along with this resolution, withdrawing the one that is in the hands of the Governor.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker, I heartily agree with my colleague from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, when he said we should have a showdown. I cannot see the wisdom of upholding Director Johnson at this time. In our investigation of Cambria County—and I speak now as Chairman—and not for the committee. I came into Harrisburg with certain findings. He agreed with them and he would ask our Relief Administrator to resign for a period of thirty days and also our supervisor with pay and then he had asked me if I would be satisfied to have him removed to Chambersburg. Now, what do you think of that, taking him out of Cambria County and removing him over to Chambersburg. Is that to continue forever? Where will it end? I say we should have a showdown and I say we should have it this morning.

Mr. BURKE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, as a member of the Joint Committee appointed to investigate the administration of relief, I feel at this time that I should make some statement about the resolution of Mr. Ruth that is before the House. I heartily agree with the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, on one score, and that is, that it is time that the members of this House made some expression as to their disposition on this matter of relief, but I heartily disagree with the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, when he tries to bind this House on a resolution that was read in the usual hurried fashion, without disparagement of the clerk, on so important a subject as the administration of relief.

I know that he can say that we should have heard the resolution, but let us consider the importance, the moment of the resolution. It involves very important questions of policy in the administration of relief. For the short time that the committee has held hearings we have bushels of inconsisent testimony; we have hearsay by the carloads. I don't think that we have had one ounce of substantial testimony, one ounce of testimony that could not be very easily controverted and I say this with full consciousness of the testimony that was given by the gentleman who last spoke, and I ask the members of this House to vote to recall this resolution from the Governor so that the members of this House may have a fair opportunity of putting the cards on the table so that we may soberly read the resolution and vote intelligently, and not be bound by the hurried action of Monday night.

Mr. JOHN A. SMITH. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, as a member of the investigating committee, Area No. 4, wherein information was secured for the drafting of this resolution, I feel compelled to stand with my colleague, Mr. Moomaw, in making the statement that a great many of the circumstances brought out in this resolution were brought out in open hearings under oath. There is something wrong with the emergency relief situation, and I believe that the contention that politics be taken out of relief should be augmented with the further statement that politics be kept out of relief, and should be augmented with the further statement that politics should be taken out of relief. However, we as an investigating committee have not come to the point that we are willing yet to make a report. When we are ready to make that report and when we have drawn definite conclusions upon definite facts, I think that that time will be the time to place before the House our findings of facts and ask you to take definite action upon them.

I am not excusing the situation which to my mind appears to be wrong, but it seems to me such a Herculean task to try and clean the stables overnight, an impossible task, that we should reconsider this matter, not with the point of changing our minds on it, but that we should draw definite conclusions from definite facts.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Burke.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Burke, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BURKE. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker, may I ask Mr. Burke when I offered my testimony last night he thought that the words that I told him were untrue?

Mr. BURKE. Mr. Speaker, I am not offering an opinion on whether or not the gentleman's testimony is untrue. I say that if the gentleman made the charge that a person on relief bought fifteen Pierce Arrow cars it doesn't warrant passing pertinent resolutions in the House.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman if he did not state that the testimony that he received by the carloads was of very little importance.

Mr. BURKE. Mr. Speaker, I agree that it is of great importance; but I say that no matter how shocking the gentleman's testimony may be, the members of this House should not commit themselves on such an important and such a momentous question as imposing on the administration of relief in this state a legislative body, unless that legislative body has had a full opportunity to consider those questions.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker, again I repeat that if any official should be removed from office in one county due to inefficiency, should he be taken to another county? We have that condition in Cambria county, where our Relief Administrator, Robert L. Johnson has promised to take a certain investigator into another county. He has told me that and if the investigator could not serve Cambria county faithfully how in the world can he serve another county faithfully?

We must get some place with our findings, otherwise these investigations are a political joke, a football. I believe in Cambria county our findings were sufficient to ask the removal of certain heads, and then to remove them from Cambria county and place them in another county to carry out the same practice.

We have found where relief investigators bought 30 pairs of shoes and 10 gallons of gas.

I have found occasions where they took relief checks out and had them cashed anywhere from two to ten dollars, and I was told they deposited $100 and upon investigation we accounted for $441.75. We had a right to believe it and then it takes heaven and earth to have them removed from our county, and now he has taken him over to Chambersburg. I want to ask the members of this House if that is efficiency.

Mr. EROE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, as a member of the joint committee to investigate relief, I wish to state that Mr. Haluska appeared before this committee last night. This Committee was created, as I understand it to ascertain the facts. I have no reason to doubt the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Haluska, but I believe it is the duty of this committee to hear the other side of the story before we make a decision, and as Mr. Haluska only appeared before the committee last night we haven't had a chance to hear Mr. Johnson on the statement that Mr. Haluska made last night, we haven't had a chance to hear Mr. Johnson upon the facts, upon the statements that Mr. Haluska made last night.

Mr. O'KEEFE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, as Chairman of the investigating committee for Allegheny County, which committee I believe made a more thorough investigation than any other committee appointed by this House, we investigated every department that comes under the emergency relief and also the works division, and every other branch receiving money from the state. We have spent eight weeks in taking testimony from all the heads of the departments, and since that time we have spent four weeks in drawing up facts which we are going to present in a few days to the House. All of this testimony, some of which is hearsay and was stricken from the record, we will present to the House. The rest is all facts, and most of it beneficial to the director of relief, not only in the operation of his department but in the disbursing of public funds.

None of this testimony so far has been brought before this House or before the emergency relief director, and I believe that it is only fair that before we go on record as making any change in the plans as outlined by the relief director, we should wait until all of this testimony is submitted to the joint investigating committee of the House and of the Senate and let them present the facts and findings along with recommendations.

I ask the members to support this resolution to recall the resolution from the Governor.

Mr. MOOMAW. Mr. Speaker, it appears from the statements made by some of the gentlemen that this resolution was made to entirely upset the state emergency relief board. My answer to that is to say that that was not the case, and if you will carefully consider this resolution, it is aimed entirely at the employment of members of the administrative staff, or what are known as the regular salaried employes of that organization. On May fourth or prior to May fourth,—to be exact,—on April twenty-sixth, a number of applications, thousands of them, came into Harrisburg from probably every county in the Commonwealth, from various persons who had previously applied to the local relief offices for the position of Junior Visitor. That title is given to persons who call on relief applicants to ascertain whether or not they are to receive relief, and also the amount.

That position is in itself a most important one. In Area No. 4, alone, by testimony given by the heads of the relief, we found that with very few exceptions the entire responsibility for handling relief, that is whether or not a certain person would receive it, likewise the amount, was in the hands of the visitors. On just a few occasions did the area supervisor have an opportunity to personally go over any case. With that in mind, my point in this resolution was to see that people with good general business experience, good common sense and mature judgment, as the resolution states, were at least given an opportunity to take the examination for these positions. I think we all know the caliber of some of the visitors that now exist in the various counties. They are not only young, but in most cases too young, but they are lacking in experience and mature judgment. In addition to that the majority of them come from wealthy families or families at least who have comfortable incomes from other sources.

In checking up, I found that during the month of March, in Franklin County, seventeen of these visitors, most of whom were of the caliber that I have just mentioned, handed out in direct relief, around forty-eight thousand dollars. I do not believe anyone of them appreciated the full responsibility of their positions. If you will stop and think of all the families in this Commonwealth who are on relief and are in the position that they live or starve, depending upon the decisions of those visitors, because we found out by the testimony that if a relief recipient or applicant complains that the same visitor is sent back to make a re-examination.

I leave it to you ladies and gentlemen of the House,—I don't believe that human nature is such that in those cases they are going to come back to their supervisors and say "I don't know a damn thing about it."

Since these applications came to Harrisburg they were gone over by the personnel department here at Harrisburg, who had never seen an applicant; they only had what they put on paper and they rejected in Area 4, ninety-eight out of one hundred sixty-four applicants. As a result of some complaints which I received, I subpoened the Director of Personnel with the applications, and he admitted that unless they had had at least three years of schooling in sociology or social service work of same character, or three years experience in social service work, which under further examination was defined as being teaching, public health nursing, settlement work, boy scout or campfire girl activities.

He further admitted that no other type of experience would be given consideration, because it was not classified as social service experience.

I secured from Mr. Adams, the personnel director, a complete list of four counties, and I have before me the result from Franklin county alone. I am familiar with some of these people who were rejected. I am likewise familiar with some of those who have been accepted. Mind you, only to take the examination, these persons who were rejected, were rejected on the basis that they were not even eligible to take an examination. Whether or not they would have passed is a matter to be determined, but I submit to you that it was certainly most unfair to rule a person as ineligible on the basis of insufficient education or experience when you have neither seen the man nor has he had an opportunity to take an examination to show whether or not he knows what they want him to know. In this list, approximately fifty percent were turned down on the basis of insufficient education and experience, and the other fifty percent on the basis of not coming within the age limit,—the age limit being from [illegible] three to forty-five, they should be within those limits. That is not mandatory. A man of forty-six might be more capable, but without even seeing the man, they have absolutely no basis upon which to arrive at a conclusion as to whether or not he is capable of doing the job.

From these applicants that have insufficient education and experience, as we know, many members of this House have received letters from those who had received college training, even, but yet were rejected and were not permitted to take the examination because their education did not include sociology and social service work.

We have got to get back to the basis of good common judgment and that is the entire purpose behind my resolution, to see that some impartial committee should examine those people and recommend the type that would be employed.

It has back of it another purpose; to see that those people who were qualified were given an opportunity to secure employment, who really needed it in their family.

It comes to me every day that a certain person may be from a very wealthy family that my neighbors, everyone know, does not have any practical experience, is working as a relief visitor, whereas certain other persons who are applying for those positions, are not even able to take this examination, and yet, my neighbors as well as myself, know that they are considered in the community as having a good level head and at least, an average education. For that purpose I intend, if this resolution is recommitted, to reintroduce or amend this resolution and again submit it to this body, carrying out the general purposes with which we know every member of this House is in accord, so as to bring to the attention of the State Emergency Relief Board and our Executive Department that we must get on a good common sense basis, and on a good sound footing because, after all, it is the people back home whom we must satisfy in our work here at Harrisburg.

Mr. MELCHOIRRE. Mr. Speaker, I move the previous question.

The motion was seconded by Messrs. Shaw, Stank, Piole, Harmuth, Pfaff, O'Keefe, Cochran, Murrin, Kilroy, Hirsch, Schrope, Barber, Welliver and Nagel.

The SPEAKER. Only fifteen members, less than the required number, having seconded the motion, the motion is not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. JOHN A. SMITH. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I do not believe that the members of this House are going to enjoy a prolonged discussion upon any problem, but I do believe that in view of the statement made by my colleague, Mr. Moomaw, from Franklin, it is incumbent upon me to make a brief explanation of some things that were brought out after the gentleman from Franklin, Mr. Moomaw, left the hearing on May fourth.

It is true that Mr. Adams, Personnel Direcor of the State Emergency Relief organization did say that according to certain standards of measure, applicants were received and rejected. However, he made the statement also that because of a ruling from Mr. Hopkins in Washington it was necessary to summarily set up some standard whereby these visitors could be selected. In view of the fact that the standards set up were those most highly approved by educational institutions, and these applicants were received and rated accordingly to these particular standards. However, after my colleague, Mr. Moomaw, left the room, Mr. Adams did say that all of those people who were rejected were going to have their applications carefully gone over in the spring, and all those people who possessed a high degree of experience and intelligence, more or less of a native character, would be given very serious consideration, as to their placement in another division.

I believe that since this is the first state body examination of these particular people, probably we are seeing a ray of hope in back of the setup in accordance with particular relief situations. I believe that my colleague, Mr. Moomaw, stated that we should not forget the question, but that we should defer action until we have definite findings of fact.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. WITKIN and Mr. WHITE and were as follows:

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mr. MOOMAW. Mr. Speaker, I vote "aye" and desire to file my reasons for so doing.

My reason for voting "aye" on this resolution is that I am informed that some phases of my resolution No. 143 conflicts with our Constitution and also with some Federal laws concerning Federal money being given to Pennsylvania. I, therefore, desire to have it recalled for the purpose of amendment or for introduction of a new resolution to carry out the true purposes of resolution No. 143.

In the House of Representatives, May 8, 1935.

Thirty years ago today the author of that popular Irish song "Give the Irish lad a chance" possibly had in mind a babe who was born that day, and although his parents did not come from the county Clare they did come from Emerald Isle, and

Whereas, His constituents in Philadelphia must have heard that song, and decided to further his chances by sending him as their Representative, and

Whereas, He does not have two chances, the same as the Dutch, he must make good on this chance, and be it

Whereas, With his customary courage he seeks, from a safe haven in his adopted land behind a screen of women and children, to becloud the memory of our Nation with sickly sentimentality; and

Whereas, Even the thought of a reconsideration of his degrading case is a taunt to our honored dead, to the flag he betrayed, and to the country which heaped munificence upon him through no effort on his part; therefore, be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania believe the concensus of opinion of the citizens of this great Commonwealth whom he disgraced to be steadfastly and unalterably opposed to any amnesty or pardon being granted to Grover C. RECONSIDERATION OF HOUSE BILL NO. 2015

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 2015, Printer's No. 725, entitled

An Act authorizing cities boroughs and towns to construct acquire own operate and control water-works and gas works and appurtenances thereto and to sell water and gas both within and without their corporate limits and conferring the power of eminent domain to acquire property for such purposes was defeated on final passage on Tuesday, April 30, 1935, be reconsidered.

Mr. SCANLON. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Eberharter, vote on the final passage of this bill?

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the negative.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Scanlon, vote on the final passage of this bill?

Mr. SCANLON. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the negative.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. KANE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I would like to call your attention to the fact that after this bill was brought before and considered by the House, it was decisively defeated and is being called up for the purpose of amendment supposedly. I know its fundamental purpose differs only slightly from the present law, in that it extends to the municipalities involved a right to go outside their own limits. There is substantially no amendment possible to this bill which would remove the objectionable features on which this bill was, I feel, defeated in this House, which would not substantially reduce the bill to provide only what the present law provides. Inasmuch as this matter was thoroughly discussed, thoroughly considered, decisively defeated, and inasmuch as this House already has on the calendar and in committees a vast number of bills dealing with this and similar subjects which have not yet been considered, I ask the members of this House not to retrace their steps and go over a matter which they have already defeated, but defeat this motion by a decisive vote.

Mr. EBBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, there were a number of valid objections to this bill in its present form, and when the bill came up before the House, those objections were fully presented by Mr. Kane, and other members.

The sponsor of this bill has in preparation at the present time amendments which he feels will remove all of those objections. Now, I think that we should give the sponsor of this bill an opportunity to present those amendments, have the bill in form and then if the objections are not met by the amendments, then the bill can be defeated again, but I think we owe it to the sponsor of this bill to give him an opportunity to meet the objections.

I ask you to support the motion to reconsider th evote.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Therefore, I do hereby challenge the Postmaster of the House of Representatives to organize a crow-shooting team (comprised of twenty-five men from the southwestern part of the state) with exceptions to a crow-shooting contest, to be held on the first Saturday in June, and to be fought out in our counties.

The Sergeant-at-Arms, of the House of Representatives, Mr. Wakefield, has openly challenged the Post Master, Mr. Smith, for a Crow Hunt; Bedford and Fulton Counties against Southwestern Pennsylvania west of the Allegheny Mountains, with exceptions on both sides, and to take place on Saturday, June 1, 1935, headquarters at Everett, eliminations to be made to twenty-five acutal participants on each side.

By doing so we will be able to dispose of considerable part of the calendar and then adjourn for the balance of the week. In order to make this possible it is necessary that the members cooperate by being in their seats promptly, and also to eliminate all unnecessary debate. The Chair does not wish to ask the members not to debate any bills but the debate on some of the bills has been carried to an unreasonable length.

The Chair now declares a recess until 4:00 P. M.

SENATE

MONDAY, May 13, 1935.

The Senate met at 9 o'clock P. M.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Thomas Kennedy) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. William E. Howard, D. D., offered the following prayer:

O God, we live in an intense age. Many problems face us, serious tasks confront us, burdens heavy to bear rest relentlessly upon our shoulders. And the time Thou dost allot unto us to meet and discharge all these responsibilities is indeed brief.

Thus we too frequently find ourselves sorely pressed and ruthlessly driven by the stern demands of duty. At times we feel that instead of mastering our work, our work is mastering us. Then fear of impending defeat chills our hearts, spurring us on to still keener activity. We rush on rails of steel, drive on hardened highways and fly in roaring planes through the air to more speedily meet life's demands.

Teach us, O Lord, the secret of quietude and deliberation in the midst of tension. May we at times go into executive session with Thee, permitting Thee to preside and hearing Thee say unto us "Be still and know that I am God."

May we as legislators and as citizens hearken unto Thy voice, be guided by Thy will and follow where Thou dost lead. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. SONES, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. PRINCE. Mr. President, I rise to the familiar and possibly overworked question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Cumberland, Mr. Prince, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. PRINCE. Mr. President, two or three weeks ago one of my constituents, dissatisfied with my publicly expressed approval of certain features of the Earle tax program, wrote me a letter in which he complained, "I hear that you have become a Democrat." I have not had time to answer his letter. When I do, I shall tell him that I have not become a Democrat but neither am I such a hide-bound, hard-boiled Republican that I must turn thumbs down on a good bill just because it happens to be sponsored on the other side of the party fence. My mind may be incapable of appreciating the fine points of party strategy, but it has always seemed to me that in the legitimate scheme of things political parties exist for the State, not the State for political parties. If this simple proposition is correct, it would follow that the surest method for any party to secure and retain control of any government is to dedicate itself to the public service and by faithful execution of its self-appointed task earn the public's gratitude and confidence.

Principles, as the dividing lines of parties, are easiest discerned and most persistent when first proclaimed in the flush and pristine freshness of early propaganda. As the party ages and grows worldly-wise its principles wither and seek the solace of retirement, like the discarded inamorata of a once violent but now passionless love. The original allegiances of the Democratic party, for example, were home rule and individual liberty. The last chapter in the progressive abandonment of these traditional Jeffersonian enthusiasms was finished when that misbegotten and ill-omened fowl, the indigo dodo, knocked the American eagle off his perch, and installed its gruesome anatomy as the emblem of regimented industry under the bureaucratic despotism of an academic brain trust. The Republican party was born in a flame of moral indignation kindled by the repeal of the Missouri Compromise. Its inspiration lasted ten years and evaporated somewhere along the trail between the assassination of Abraham Lincoln and the disastrous "retreat from Moscow" in 1932. A singular exchange of doctrinal loyalties has made the Republican party the champion of state rights, and the Democratic party the proponent of federal centralization. Reluctantly we face the conclusion that whatever historic or sentimental value party principles may have as moral inheritance from an illustrious past, in the actual conduct of present day government they have little if any propulsive or restraining force. The major question in legislative proposals, whatever their origin or nature, is solely intrinsic merit—the question of justice and practicability. If parties are to survive the melee of legislative contention it can only be on the basis of competitive endeavor, not to mutually discredit or destroy, but in rivalry to excel in the type and quality of service rendered.

Pennsylvania has been Republican so long that our party can hardly realize that it is no longer in the saddle. Republicans who confidently assert, "We have the votes," overlook the fact that nominal registration is not necessarily a guarantee of delivery at the polls. We did have the votes, and it was the self-complacency and arrogance bred by that fictitious asset that placed us where we are today, in the position of a minority party which does not have the votes. Not that I regard the election of Governor Earle as a partisan victory. There are not enough Democratic votes in the State to elect unaided a Democratic governor. But there are enough Republican voters endowed with political conscience, moral convictions and independent judgment to defeat or elect either party's candidates whenever the situation demands the free exercise of these qualities. The only strategy or tactics that will get either party anywhere is intelligent disinterested effort for the common good. If the Democrats, so far as lies within their opportunity and power, give the people that, and we do not, the Democrats will continue to win their political battles, and they will deserve to win them. If we unite with the Democrats in reasonable unprejudiced consideration of legislative measures, voluntarily co-operate in the spirit of fair play, and seek and emphasize points of agreement rather than points of disagreement, we shall regain the confidence and favor we have lost and recover the natural advantage which our nominal registration implies. The Republican party in this session has already rendered one transcendent service which ought not to be forgotten by the taxpayers. It has knocked off eighty-nine million dollars from the original budget and at the same time has met the Governor's demand and the Federal Government's requirement for sixty million dollars for relief. Perhaps the public will toss us one bouquet in compensation for the dead cats it has been hurling for the past eighteen weeks.

Systematic taxation is a modern development which did not begin to be scientific until the eighteenth century, and is far from being reasonably scientific even now. The trouble with the financial burden of government is that it falls with heaviest impact on the poor. With much, very much, of the Earle Tax program I have been in hearty accord from the start, because I believe it moves toward the desideratum of just taxation—which is that a man shall contribute to the government proportionately to the benefits he receives from the government.

If some of these levies seem to hit the victim with the ungentle force of a solarplexus blow, I suggest it is because the victim has coddled his pocketbook nerve so long by the practice of protective evasion that it has become supersensitive to unaccustomed pressure. And so, like football player or a boxer who has neglected exercise and training and finds his muscles flabby and his wind short when he gets back on the gridiron or in the ring, he can't stand up and take it.

There are a couple of other fat cows that ought to be milked while we are about it. There is no reason why foundations should be exempt from the tax on gifts. These privileged establishments collect so much money that they have to sit up nights devising ways to spend it. The ways they discover and adopt include about everything the founders never thought of. The other succulent prospect is the chain stores. A tax on them would no more be a levy on the family market basket than a dollar and ten cents dog license is a tax on Glover's Mange Cure. There isn't one of them that wouldn't absorb it to escape competition with the local merchants. These taxes would make it possible to eliminate one to two of the minor but annoying items in the compromise proposals, such as the mercantile tax increase and the check tax, to the advantage and satisfaction of everybody except the foundations and the chain stores.

Compromise is the basis of all enduring adjustments. The Constitution of the United States was wrought out and brought to eventuation by mutual concessions which seemed at the time like a hundred percent surrender. If all the persons who participated in the late conferences had put their feet under a friendly board laden with the accessories of good cheer early in the session, these four months of acrimonious dispute might perhaps have been avoided by a satisfactory meeting of minds. Some very momentous questions that defied solution in debates and caucuses have yielded to the melting glow of shaded candles and the amiable influence of a menu card. The location of the national capital and the assumption of State debts were two convulsive issues that threatened to disrupt the young republic in the days of its early hope. Partisanship ran high and animosites seemed implacable. The shrewd and tactful Hamilton arranged a dinner of political opposites at which Jefferson, an artist in the social amenities, presided and incidentally paid the bill, and there the major differences were worked into a compromise settlement to the entire satisfaction of all concerned.

If the distinguishing principles of our respective parties are historical rather than contemporary, we are at heart no less patriotic, no less capable of fitting the solution to the problem, than were our fathers in the days when statesmen wore silver buckles and ruffled shirts.

We have faced conditions in this session unparalleled within living memory in the history of the Senate. Momentous problems still await our decision, challenging our faith and courage no less than they demand our patience and fair judgment. If circumstances tempt to partisan display, let us remember that they also invite to non-partisan concurrence. Let us respect the boundaries which our separate loyalties define, put first things first, and "render unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's, and unto God the things which are God's." Thus shall the legislative intelligence, the legislative volition and the legislative conscience combine in statutory accord with the noble sentiment inscribed on the arch above the rostrum where the Lieutenant Governor presides:—"Government is the means of Justice as Justice is the means of Peace. Let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon."

May these words inspire and not accuse us!

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, after hearing the beautiful, scholarly address of my colleague and friend, the Senator from Cumberland, Mr. Prince, I rise in fear and trembling to discuss for just a few minutes a very practical thing. Every member of this Senate is familiar with what has taken place in the last four months, since the fifteenth day of January, when Governor Earle was inaugurated. I believe the most important piece of legislation that has or will appear before this body is the tax program for relief, and that program has been discussed almost to the exclusion of every other piece of legislation of importance.

The Governor of Pennsylvania, shortly after taking office, formulated a program of twenty-two points, providing that it would return in taxes $60,000,000.00, the amount required by the Federal Government for the purpose of relief. It met with a storm of protest from the people, as every tax would. Taxes of any kind are unpopular—all of them. I wish that I could be against every tax that would be proposed. And that would be the way to remain popular with your constituents. But that is not a constructive policy. This is not the time to hedge, dodge or evade.

Then the Republican Party decided to formulate a program—which they did, covering nine bills. In this they produced a program that would return the same amount, $60,000,000.00; and I believe, in that address over the radio some few weeks ago, I called attention to the fact that on seven of the nine bills of the Republican Party the Democratic Party are in accord. After all these four months of disagreement and harsh words exchanged, and from the speeches over the radio and statements in the papers, it narrowed itself down to two bills.

As I said before, the Senators who are familiar with the bills know what happened; but I am wondering if the public is not confused, if the public does not think that we are both wrong, both the Republicans and the Democrats; I am wondering if they think we have approached this is the right way—whether or not there had been delay on the part of the Republican Party in formulating a program. Now, let us, for a second, do what the legal fraternity says—let us do a little summing up.

The program was formulated, and then the Finance Committee called upon the Governor, and for several weeks we heard reports, but very little word from the Committee. Now, I do not criticise the Finance Committee; they had a difficult task, and perhaps they did their very best; but nevertheless, for some reason or other —whether they were at fault or not—there was delay; and finally a group of Senators here who have some independence, I am proud to say, decided that the delay had continued too long, and they called upon the Governor. There was no program discussed at that time, but it was the sincere desire on the part of these men to have something done, to accomplish something, put something into effect before the zero hour came on relief. You will all recall that the deadline occurred three weeks ago, when the Republican Party presented bills to transfer moneys from some special funds to take care of relief at that time—merely putting off the evil day.

The Finance Committee reported to the caucus that they were at an impasse—no agreement could be made with the Governor. Then a new Committee was appointed, and they called upon the Governor, and an unfortunate incident occurred; but fortunately it was straightened out the next day to the saisfaction of all. In these times men who occupy places of trust must not become too sensitive, must not take offense too easily atwhat any of us may say in times of stress—very often, after a hard day, many of us become irritated. And so that little incident passed off, and this new Committee met the next day and had a very pleasant time with the Governor, and they gathered, as our scholarly friend would say, "around the table," and there, tentatively and dispassionately, discussed the tax program, and reported back to the caucus on this fact—a seven-hour caucus of the Republicans; and what happened in the caucus I suppose the ethics of the Senate, and the traditions, prevent us from telling in detail; it was nothing serious, but there was a very fine discussion of the tax program.

Then a new Committee was appointed to take to the Governor a message, and that message was to the effect that we were coming into accord with his program—hardly a bit of difference; we agreed in principle but disagreed slightly in detail. We started for the Governor's office but before we reached the Governor this program was changed, the details were changed, the figures were changed; but much to our delight they were still coming closer to what the Governor wanted.

Now then, the Governor was pleased. True, he accepted some of these items with reluctance—as we all do in the whole program of either party; there are many things we would like to vote against; but he agreed—and I am seriously sorry that Senator Sordoni is not here tonight, but Senator Staudenmeier is, and he served on that Committee with me—we had an agreement, and there we agreed upon a program; and it was said at that time, by the Republican committee who visited the Governor, that while we were in accord, and it was the consensus of opinion of the Republican Party that they would pass this program, still we could not guarantee to the Governor the thirty or thirty-one votes of the caucus. It was accepted in good spirit, and later was confirmed by the members of the Republican caucus.

Now then, I have taken rather a long time to come to the point but I did so purposely so that everyone would know just exactly what happened. Since last Wednesday, when this agreement was made, I have heard rumors of fight on different parts of this program; I have heard that there is strenuous opposition to several items of this program; and what I am fearing now is that on some of these bills on which there is the widest difference of opinion, and to which there is the most opposition, we will be in doubt as to whether there will be enough Republicans to join with the Democrats in putting these bills into effect. I am very fearful that some of these bills will go down to defeat. I have heard, time and time again, Republican members say that they are going to oppose certain of these bills. I do not question their right to do that; I would like to oppose some of these bills myself; but what I want to say is, if any of these bills are defeated, if, by Wednesday of this week, these bills are not passed, enacted into law, what will be the effect? Federal Relief Administrator Harry Hopkins said, in no uncertain terms, that relief will end, relief will end on Wednesday of this week.

Then what happens? Then the people on relief—1,700,000 persons—of course some of those are accused of being unworthy of charity, but at least there are a million five hundred thousand receiving charity who deserve it, men and women who are willing to work if they can find work to do, who are not only perfectly willing to work but who prefer to work rather than to receive charity from the State.

Now then, gentlemen, here is the situation: are we going to pass this whole program? Is every bill in the program agreed on going to be passed this week? If we fall short, if there is even one bill or two bills—and particularly those that would bring in the greatest amount of revenue—if they fail, then relief fails.

Now then, gentlemen of the Senate, I want to put myself straight on this question. I am willing to vote for every bill that we have agreed upon; each and every one of them I am willing to vote for. I hope that there are enough Republicans in this Senate to vote the same way. I know that these people that come here opposing legislation—I know they think it is just terrible that we should tax their industries, that we should tax their businesses; but I would like them to substitute something in place of these taxes. They oppose, but do not propose anything as a substitute. I am willing to vote for another program if the Governor and Republican members of the Senate agree upon one, but I am certainly not going to be frightened away by any group of men, no matter how strong or how powerful they are, from doing my full duty; and if by Wednesday or Thursday next the relief program is not passed, and the people begin to starve, and the people begin to cry for food, I just wonder if the peace officers of this State are not going to have a very difficult time in controlling them.

I say to you now that I believe we should do as we did with regard to the Sordoni Act, when the banks were in trouble, when everybody had lost confidence in the banks of the State, when it was too late to enact legislation in time to allay their fears—because it takes five days to pass a bill; at that time a resolution was passed by the House and the Senate pledging all the members to the passing of the Sordoni bill; and I want to say to you that if there is any program formulated that will bring in $60,000,000.00 in relief by Wednesday next, I will present a resolution on this floor placing every man in this body on record as to where he stands on each and every bill on this program. I am ready now, and willing, to vote for each and every bill on this program.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Rankin, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. President, as one of the new Senators of this Senate, I have refrained from participating in debate, but when I see such a fine feeling existing here this evening, I must say a few words at this time.

I am a firm believer in Party Government because it makes for responsibility. Platforms are written by parties, and candidates are pledged to make good the promises of those platforms; hence, parties serve the country by enabling the people to change their rulers when these rulers no longer truly serve. That is why America continues as a Democracy in spite of the sad experiences of so many of the other countries of the world. In the last analysis, our people do truly govern themselves; and, so far in our nation's history, the two-party system has worked fairly well in meeting the requirements of the people.

If you will think back with me to the time when our people broke away from England, you will agree with me that it was simply because the government was no longer in accord with the desires of the people. Do you not remember that at first, we were thirteen separate governments—each fearful of the other and resentful and suspicious as to everybody's motives but his own. At that time, in a convention of the representatives of the colonies, suspicion and fear seemed to be on the verge of deadlocking any action whatever. In that crisis, one far-seeing patriot arose in that august body, and made this declaration, "Brethren, we are no longer New Yorkers, Virginians, or Vermonters; we are Americans." So it is with us today in Pennsylvania. We members of the government of Pennsylvania are no longer either Democrats or Republicans alone; we are Pennsylvanians; and we, in particular, are Pennsylvanians charged with the solemn responsibility of meeting a situation that is extremely regrettable in many of its features. It is not of our making nor of our choosing, but it is here and we are in the providence of God, the men chosen to meet it. Political action alone will not solve this problem; it requires statesmanship of the highest type.

Regardless of our party affiliations, the men of this Senate represent the entire people of Pennsylvania and that back of every responsibility to party lies the supreme responsibility of each of us to the people of Pennsylvania. And, in the last analysis, no obligation to any party can morally interfere with our freedom to do right, and it certainly must be right to legislate in behalf of those who are unemployed and need to be fed.

I appreciate that many things have been said that hurt; wounds have been made that are hard to heal; but surely the men of this Senate—men who are above the average in judgment ability and intelligence—will not let injured feelings interfere with their duties to the people whom they represent.

We are citizens of the greatest Commonwealth in the United States, let us prove that her Statesmen are as great as the State they represent.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1185 (House Bill No. 1826), entitled:

An Act to amend section four hundred and forty-six of the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hdndred and twenty-nine (P. L. 1278) entitled "An act relating to counties of the second third fourth fifth sixth seventh and eighth classes and revising amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto" by authorizing counties to appropriate money for purpose of controlling and suppressing diseases to honey-bees

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I desire to be enlightened on this bill. I notice the title says it is for the purpose of controlling and suppressing diseases to honey-bees. Now, my experience with honey-bees has been such that I would like to suppress the honey-bees and not the diseases of them, and I would like to know if there are any farmers here who can enlighten me on the merits of this bill. I know that the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, lives in the city but spends his money on the farm, and I would like to inquire seriously as to this bill, and therefore would like the gentleman who knows everything about all bills to enlighten me on this one.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I am not a honey, but I suggest that if the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, buzzes around a bit he will find out something about this bill.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, this is the only bill about which the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, confesses ignorance. I would like to be enlightened on this bill by somebody from the rural districts, because I really, seriously, am loathe to vote on a bill to appropriate money for controlling and suppressing diseases of the honey-bee. I do not know, in these times when money means so much to the State, whether or not we should appropriate money for this purpose.

Mr. PRESIDENT, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 1185 (House Bill No. 1826) go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I object.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears objection.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, seems to be satisfied that honey-bees ought to be suppressed. Now, in order that he may be enlightened as to the purpose of this bill, it seems to me that this bill—since we cannot suppress the honey bee; it would be pretty difficult—this bill, I think, contemplates suppressing the diseases of the honey-bees so that when they sting they will leave no germs in the sting.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, with the very lucid explanation of the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, I withdraw any objection I may have had to the bill.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to explain my vote. I am going to vote "no" on this bill because, after having listened to the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, and knowing the proclivity of the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, and his interest in this bill, I will object to the infected sting being taken from the honey-bee; and for that reason I shall vote against the bill.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Whereas, The main reason for such recall was that the General Assembly, on mature consideration, felt that certain provisions thereof were unconstitutional in the binding effect they exercised upon the General Assembly; and

Whereas, It is the fixed belief of both Houses that the subject matter of said Resolution is of paramount importance and requires immediate action; therefore, be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the Executive Director of the State Emergency Relief Board be urged to submit to an advisory committe, hereby created in each county, to consist of five members, two of whom shall be members of the party polling the highest vote in the county at the last preceding November election, to be appointed by the county chairman of such party, two of whom shall be members of the party polling the next highest vote at the last preceding November election, to be appointed by the county chairman of such party, and a fifth member to be selected by a majority of the four so appointed, a list of all relief administration employes in the respective county and all applications for positions in each such county. The appointive members of each such county committee shall each receive five dollars per week for services rendered in connection with the activities of the committee, and the expenses of each such committee shall be paid from relief administrative funds; and, be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted by the Chief Clerk of the House and the Chief Clerk of the Senate, to the State Emergency Relief Board, and the Executive Director thereof.

The SPEAKER. The resolution will be filed with the Clerk under the rules.

RESOLUTION NO. 90

Mr. DENT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time Resolution No. 90, Printer's No. 1022.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, March 14, 1935.

Liquor Control Board to Display Products of small Distilleries with Products of other Distilleries in State Liquor Stores

Whereas, We have in the State of Pennsylvania, a State owned and controlled system of liquor buying and selling, and

Whereas, This system does not give the same right to all distillers in the Commonwealth in the placing of their products in these State Stores, and

Whereas, These small distilleries (operating entirely in the State of Pennsylvania) pay the same proportionate amount of taxes to the Commonwealth, and

Whereas, These small distilleries are being smothered out of existence because of the inability to place their products in the Stores with an equal chance of display and sale, and

Whereas, These small distilleries are important contributors to the Commonwealth and especially so to the communities in which they operate, therefore be it

Resolved, That the Liquor Control Board be instructed to send out circular letters to the effect that any Pennsylvania concern distilling whiskies etc., be given the right and privilege of placing in any liquor store the products of said concern when such liquor is requested by local consumers and be it further

Resolved, That said products be placed on sale by the bottle as well as by the case and that these products be placed on display along with other products of other concerns and that the prices of these products by the bottle be placed where the consumers can examine said price lists.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. DENT. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, is it the intention of this resolution that liquor be sold by the bottle by those holding a liquor license?

Mr. DENT. No sir, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, may I ask what the gentleman means on page two, line seven, "Resolved that the said products be placed on sale by the bottle as well as by the case"?

Mr. DENT. Mr. Speaker, it only means exactly what it says. It refers entirely to liquor stores. Under the present system any small distillery in the state of Pennsylvania can only sell its liquor when some licensee asks for it, and then the cases are placed under the shelf and individuals wanting that kind of whiskey cannot buy it except by the drink in some licensee's place of business. It puts the small distillery at a disadvantage inasmuch as it cannot at any time dispose of its wares, and the small distillery cannot go out of the State because it has not that much business. The small distillery cannot put their liquors in the liquor stores under the present system of buying.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, to be perfectly frank with you I do not quite understand the resolution and that is the purpose of my interrogation. Does the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, intend by this resolution that The Liquor Control Board would have to buy liquor from any distilling company that wanted to sell them liquor, or would they still have the right or discretion to say what they wanted to buy or what they did not want to buy?

Mr. DENT. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Philadelphia listen to this—

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I have read the resolution and I am asking what is its intent?

Mr. DENT. Mr. Speaker, I only intend if somebody wants that particular brand of whiskey that he can buy it through the Liquor Store by asking for it.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, is it the intention of the gentleman from Westmoreland then by this resolution if someone walks into a liquor store and asks for a certain brand of liquor, and if they do not have it, that that Liquor Store would be compelled to have that brand at once without giving an order.

Mr. DENT. Mr. Speaker, it would be impossible for the liquor store to have it at once, but I believe that it is only fair to the consumer that if he wants a liquor made in Pennsylvania that he can buy it.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, doesn't the resolution do more than that? Doesn't the resolution provide that the Liquor Board if this resolution were passed and they carry out the intent of this resolution, that they would have to buy the liquor from that particular distillery and have it on hand?

Mr. DENT. Mr. Speaker, not unless somebody came in and asked for it. The resolution is very clear. You do not have to have the stuff in stock unless someone came in and asked for it. They do not have to have it in stock.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman mean that if one person asked for it that they would have to have it?

Mr. DENT. Mr. Speaker, it says by local consumers,—I think the word "consumers" is plural.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman mean two people?

Mr. DENT. Mr. Speaker, probably so, if two people want a brand of liquor it wouldn't be a bad idea to get it.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, under the terms of the Liquor Control Act, any individual desiring a special brand of liquor can procure it through the Board by depositing a part of the price. This House has appointed a committee that has been investigating the Liquor Control Board. I think the result of that investigation has been disappointing to some of the people that inspired it. Having investigated the Board, it is now proposed that the House in addition to investigating, proceed to control the minutiae of the operations of the Board, stepping into the store and saying what brands of liquor shall be bought, how much and when to buy. The resolution is a gratuitous insult to the Board, if the Board as the public press says is to be invited to continue, and if it is not to continue the resolution is a gratuituous insult to the next Board.

Mr. DENT. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, just as the gentleman from Cambria explained, any citizen of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania can go into a liquor store and ask for a particular brand of whiskey and they must get it for him if I am right in what he says. This resolution only allows that that particular liquor asked for be displayed along with the other privileged liquors that are on display at the present time in the liquor stores.

We have in the state of Pennsylvania numerous small distilleries that contribute largely to the maintenance of small communities in which they reside and operate.

Under the present system I or any other citizen can go into a store and ask for any particular brand. They get that particular brand, in fact you must buy it by the case; you cannot get it by the bottle. They set that case of liquor under the shelf. It is not fair to the Pennsylvania distilleries. This resolution is not doing anything to the Liquor Board that should not have been done long ago. It has no effect whatsoever upon the liquor investigation. It is only a move and an effort to try and save the small distillery from extinction which the present system will do in less than six or eight more months. These men have been distilling liquor for quite a long time. It is fine. It is old as compared with what they have been getting, because nobody is buying it. They do not know it is there. It is only in fairness to the small distilleries that I ask you to vote for the resolution.

STATEMENT BY MR. COLEMAN

Mr. COLEMAN asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. SPEAKER and members of the House, it has been the customary thing while this House has been in session to have some sort of a formal observation of every anniversary and every birthday. Most of you will recollect that on Lincoln's Birthday we had a brief program at which we heard the reading of his Gettysburg address. On President Roosevelt's birthday we had a program at which we were informed that because of his policies he was preaching to the people of America the regeneration of human hearts through the power of God with an earnestness seldom surpassed in the Nation. Many of you will recollect that on the occasion of the anniversary of the oration of Thaddeus Stevens, we celebrated it, a speech that will forever ring down the corridors of time.

Are we going to fail to take cognizance that all of these men owe their lives to the unspeakable agony of a mother, who went down into the very jaws of death to snatch therefrom a new life. Were my inspired soul with the prophetic breath of Heaven, were my tongue the same as the one that rested upon the head of the Prince of the Apostles, I scarce could utter with becoming praise, fashioned by the fingers of God, after the likeness of his own Sacred Mother. Yesterday was her day. Yesterday throughout the Nation we celebrated Mother's Day and I am going to ask you members of the House to forget for just a moment the hustle and bustle of legislative matters while I just say a word or two about the mothers of all of us.

The unfolding of nature, the season of spring with its unfolding of life around us has again rejuvinated the hearts of all mankind. Every man who is assembled here tonight has at sometime or another experienced that great joy known only between mother and son.

For more than nineteen centuries mankind has had an unfailing source of inspiration to noble deeds, to great efforts and to sublime achievements. For more than nineteen centuries the word that has burnished, represented, if you will, that ever flowing source of inspiration, that has thrilled the hearts, charmed the ears and raised the hopes of all the children of men has been "mother".

I want to say in closing that every man here at some time or another has enjoyed that same thrill. So, let us all resolve tonight as a token of appreciation for the great boon of maternal devotion, let us all resolve to commemorate her sacred name and sing her praises. Let us all beseach the Divine Father to shower his richest blessings upon her for ever and ever. I know that I am expressing the sentiments rooted deeply in all our hearts, when I say with the poet:

"The world at times has beat me back
In battles I have fought
Not always has the god Success
Touched tasks in which I wrought

Full oft has fortune dealt a blow
Instead of bent to bless
And heartache follows close upon
The heels of happiness

And often when a solemn woe
Of grief my heart intoned
And often when my spirit writhed
And all my nature groaned

Their sole refrain that softened pain
Not phrased by mortal tongue
But born of memories old and sweet
The songs my mother sung.

And he who harking back to youth
Goes forth and nobly tries
To color life to match the light
That shines from Mother's eyes

He'll not pride his faltering feet
Upon the race they've made
But search his heart and bless the part
That Mother's love has played

He'll walk adown the way of life
And in his daily prayer
Thank God that all his best was born
In that old bye bye chair."

RESOLUTION NO. 141

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time Resolution No. 141, Printer's No. 1044.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 2, 1935.

Whereas, The policy of the administrators of unemployment relief is to refuse work relief to persons except such as are beneficiaries of direct relief; and

Whereas, Many conscientious citizens refuse to become beneficiaries of direct relief, and even though in want, are thus denied work to which they are entitled; therefore be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), That each city, borough, town and township is hereby urged to form a committee or committees which shall sit for the purpose of hearing applications of persons who are in need of employment and who are not receiving direct relief, and also of persons who are receiving direct relief, and who are able to secure part-time employment in industry, which if amplified with work relief would provide sufficient income to enable such persons to forego direct relief;

Resolved, That such committees shall be constituted as follows:

In each city the mayor of the city shall appoint two members of council, and the president of the board of school directors shall appoint two members of the school board, who together with the mayor of the city, shall constitute a committee of five. In any city the committee so constituted may appoint sub-committees composed of one member of the committee of five, and other persons by them selected who, in the public interest, will agree to serve without compensation in order to carry out the spirit and intent of this resolution.

In each borough and town the burgess shall appoint two members of the council and the president of the board of school directors shall appoint two members of the school board, who together with the burgess, shall constitute a committee of five.

In each township of the first class the president of the board of township commissioners shall appoint two township commissioners, and the president of the board of school directors shall appoint two members of the school board, who together with the president of the board of township commissioners, shall constitute a committee of five.

In townships of the second class, the president of the board of school directors shall appoint two members of the school board, who together with the chairman of the board of township supervisors shall constitute a committee of three.

Resolved, That the committees constituted in accordance with this resolution be urged and requested to sit at least one day or one evening each week, to hear applications of persons desiring work relief and who come within the terms of this resolution, and shall have power to issue to persons who are deemed worthy, certificates, furnished by the State Emergency Relief Board, evidencing the belief that the holder thereof is entitled to employment, full time or part time, on any work relief project. No such certificate shall be denied to any person for the reason that he or she is not presently receiving direct relief, and no such certificate shall be issued to any person who in the opinion of any such committee is not entitled to work relief;

Resolved, That the State Emergency Relief Board and its agencies and those entrusted with the employment of persons on work relief projects be directed to cooperate with the committees constituted by this resolution and provide work to the fullest extent for the holders of certificates issued by such committees, and where work is available no such holder of a certificate shall be denied work for the reason that he is not a beneficiary of direct relief, or that he may be employed part time in industry;

Resolved, That no such committee shall hear applications of persons receiving direct relief unless the applicant is able to secure part time employment in industry, and is in need of additional income in order to forego direct relief;

Resolved, That the State Emergency Relief Board shall send such information as may be deemed advisable to each city, borough, town and township in this Commonwealth in order to bring into being the committees contemplated by this act;

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the State Emergency Relief Board by the Chief Clerk of this House.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the sponsor of this resolution to explain its purpose?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the purpose of this resolution is very clear to those who read it. Throughout this State we have complaints daily of people that must go on direct relief before they have any opportunity whatsoever of getting any relief work. They must be the beneficiaries of direct relief, otherwise they are not entitled to a day's work on any relief project. Under this setup a local committee composed of five men, as the resolution reads, will sit one evening of each week in each city, borough and township, without any compensation whatsoever, and any person desiring relief work can go before this committee, present his case and if found worthy, he shall be entitled to relief work. He can thereby be kept off direct relief.

The SPEAKER. The Chair is informed that a number of the members do not have the resolution on file. Is that a fact? Do any members not have the resolution on file?

MOTION TO LAY ON THE TABLE

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker, I move you that this resolution be now laid upon the table.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to.

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1373 entitled:

An Act relating to local taxation establishing a centralized system in counties of the second third fourth fifth sixth seventh and eighth classes for the collection of all county borough town township and certain school and poor taxes except in certain cases through the county treasurer as county tax collector defining the powers and duties of the county tax collector and of counties boroughs towns townships and school and poor districts regulating date of certification of tax levies abolishing the office of county borough town township school and poor district tax collector upon the expiration of existing terms defining offenses and imposing penalties and repealing existing laws

The first section was read as follows:

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That in counties of the second third fourth fifth sixth seventh and eighth classes a centralized county system for the collection of all county borough town township school and poor taxes is hereby established

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend Sec. 1, page 2, line 4, by striking out the words "third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh"

Amend Sec. 1, page 2, line 5, by striking out the words "and eighth,"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. MOOMAW. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I rise to oppose this amendment. This bill is designed to set up a centralized tax collection system in all of those classes of counties except the county of the first class which at the present time has a centralized system of tax collection.

You gentlemen will note that this amendment strikes out all classes of counties with the exception of the second class. If this amendment were to be included in this bill, it would make it exclusively an Allegheny county measure. I know that practically all of the counties in this Commonwealth want a more equitable form of tax collection, and that is what is proposed in this measure. By taking into consideration this amendment, you might as well take in the second class and defeat the bill entirely. A vote for this amendment would in every instance be construed as a vote against the bill in its entirety. I therefore ask you to oppose this amendment.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, as was suggested by the sponsor of this bill, the amendment which I have proposed would take out of it every county except Allegheny. There has not been befor this House during this session a bill which had as much pressure behind it as this bill. In my own county it has been the issue of the year. The newspapers have made extravagent statements explaining what it will bring about. The sponsors of this bill have stated that it will save $3,000,000 until they almost believe it themselves. They have brought in here to speak for this bill high officials from the state of Indiana; they have brought here to speak for this bill officials from the state of Ohio; they have brought before the Committee high paid lawyers from Philadelphia.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, will state his point of order.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Dauphin, is discussing the merits of the bill as a whole and is not in any way confining his remarks to reasons justifying the amendment now pending before the House.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will confine himself to the amendments to the bill.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, in order to persuade the counties of the third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes to accept this bill, the proponents brought here pamphlets which had our names printed on them, done up in fine order, and all the while the newspapers shouted about money and the existent tax collector's lobby. There was more information and more misleading information brought by the supporters of this bill than on any other bill that was before this House during this session. In spite of all this information, in spite of all the newspaper publicity, in spite of the fact that the daily newspapers of my own district took it as the outstanding issue of the session, in spite of all that, there has not been a single person from my district who has stated that he is in favor of this legislation. I say, members of the House, go back and talk to your constituents about this, and those of you who are from the third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes of counties will find almost to a man that they are opposed to it unless they are being driven into line by some group or some organization. I have talked about it to my constituents. I have had a few of them talk to me about it, and I haven't found a single one who is in favor of this bill.

I say to the members of this House if Allegheny county wants it and it appears to me that it is the only county that really and truly wants it, then I say, let them have it, but to the oher classes of counties, which I feel sure do not want it, I say let us not have it.

Mr. REISING. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Woodside.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Woodside, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WOODSIDE. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. REISING. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman from Dauphin what class county he is from.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, a fourth class county.

Mr. REISING. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman from Dauphin, if there has been a request from any citizen of a sixth class county to him, asking him that he offer such amendments.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, there has not been.

Mr. REISING. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman from Dauphin, if he does not think that he has assumed some prerogative here that probably better belong to others.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I do not get that question.

Mr. REISING. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Dauphin if he does not think that he has assumed a right upon himself to include in the amendment fifth class counties, when fifth class counties have not requested him to do so.

Mr. Woodside. Mr. Speaker, in answer to that question, I merely wish to state that from talking to members of the House, I have found that they have been almost unanimously opposed to the bill, with the exception of the members of the second class counties. If the members from the sixth class counties feel that they want this bill, I have no objection to their being included in it, but I have noticed from speaking to different members as to what they truly feel concerning this bill, that they are almost unanimously opposed to it.

Mr. REISING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I rise to oppose these amendments for the simple reason that there has been a great expense added to the collection of taxes in the state of Pennsylvania, much of which could be easily eliminated by a more centralized system of tax collection. There is approximately $336,000,000 collected in the state of Pennsylvania annually, at a cost of around $5,000,000, possibly a little more, while over in the state of Ohio, our neighbor, they collect with a centralized system. $324,000.000 at a cost of approximately $1,185,000 per year.

It seems to me that we are spending a lot of money that should be used and most properly be used to a much greater advantage than paying commissions to tax collectors, and where there are so many duplications and other expenses incident to the collection of taxes, and I feel that we should now begin to realize that every tax dollar that we can save for the tax payer we are strengthening the foundation upon which our nation is being built, because at this time with the selling of homes and farms, the closing of schools and many other things that are brought about through the economic forces that have followed our expensive and extravagant system of tax collection, it is only fair to ourselves and to our people to give them the benefit of every dollar that we pay out in taxes rather than to maintain a system of distributing,—well we will say, jobs to a lot of people that are just tax receivers rather than tax collectors. So I ask you to vote down these amendments.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the discussion has concerned the merits of the bill as a whole, whereas the matter pending is a specific amendment. I believe that the gentleman from Dauphin has informed you and has admitted that this bill presents an issue and is entitled, herefore, to be faced on the basis of a vote. The gentleman from Dauphin by his amendment does not propose a vote but endeavors to perform a surgical operation and remove the issue. I would say to the members of this House that the way to handle this proposition is for the gentleman from Dauphin to hit this bill in the face in the regular way, with the issue pending. I say to the members of the House that instead of amending this bill, if we are so disposed, let us soak it on the jaw, but the gentleman from Dauphin proposes to stab it in the back.

Now, ladies and gentlemen of the House, that has not been the disposition on this side of the Chamber, and it has heretofore not been the disposition on the other side of the Chamber. There is no need for equivocation. There is an issue. The amendment proposed by the gentleman from Dauphin removed the issue I believe and I hope you believe that the issue should remain, and that therefore the amendments submitted by the gentleman from Dauphin should fall.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am not afraid to face any issue. It is not with the idea of removing any issue that these amendments were introduced. The question before the House and properly before it is whether this bill should be applicable to the districts of the third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth class counties, and that is a fair issue, which is directly before this House.

I want to say one other thing, if I felt this bill would be a real saving to the taxpayer, I would be for it, but after very careful consideration and very careful examination I am convinced that it will not only work a hardship upon the taxpayer but that it will not save him one red copper.

Mr. MOOMAW. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Woodside, has spoken of the third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth class counties, whereas he only represents a fourth class county. I personally represent a sixth class county, and I have received any number of letters and have had personal conversations asking when this bill was going to be acted upon as they desired to see it put into active legislation.

Speaking of these other counties of various sizes, in other states where similar forms of legislation have been in operation for a number of years, covering all the various class counties in sizes comparable with each and every size of county within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, it is in successful operation, in form similar to this measure in nearly three-fourths of the states of the Union, and not in one instance have they ever attempted to legislate it back into a form of tax collection similar to what we have here in Pennsylvania. So, most assuredly if that form of tax collection can work successfully in those other states at a more economical cost of tax collection, it can work in Pennsylvania for the benefit of the taxpayers the same as it does in those other states. Therefore I again ask you to vote down this amendment so this bill can be made effective for all the counties of the Commonwealth so that all the counties of the Commonwealth can derive the good therefrom.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Moomaw and Mr. James W. Patterson.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the sponsor of this bill to explain its provisions.

Mr. SCANLON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, House Bill No. 2489 provides for the Commonwealth to take over 145 miles of highway in Philadelphia. It provides also for an appropriation from the Motor License Fund. It will provide a tremendous amount of work for the City of Philadelphia, where the unemployment problem today is very acute. It would take thousands of men off the relief rolls, and the money thereby saved would be rightfully spent in useful employment, which would benefit the city of Philadelphia and its taxpayers for years to come. It would relieve the city of Philadelphia of the maintenance cost of these streets in the future and would obtain for the city a more rightful share of the taxes which they now pay to the state. would ask you all to vote "aye" on this bill.

On the question recurring.

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

WHEREAS the General Assembly by Act approved March twenty-seven one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five has extended the provisions of the Act of May eighteen one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three Pamphlet Laws eight hundred twenty-six authorizing the Courts of Common Pleas for a period of two years March thirty-one one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five to prevent the collection of mortgages by stay of execution on judgments entered thereon so that the holders of mortgages while said Act is in force are not able to realize thereon in cash

NOW THEREFORE BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same as follows

Section 1 In all cases where any bank bank and trust company or trust company engaged in a fiduciary business has guaranteed or otherwise obligated itself to pay in cash the amount or value of trust or other funds deposited or placed with it for investment and such trust funds have been in good faith invested by such bank bank and trust company or trust company in mortgages on real estate participations in mortgages or in pools or funds of mortgages on real estate no suit or other proceeding at law in equity or otherwise including proceedings on exceptions filed to accounts of fiduciaries shall be brought nor shall further proceedings be had on any such suit or proceedings now pending or on any judgment or decree heretofor entered until after two (2) years from the date of this act by any trust trust estate or beneficiary interested in such trust estate to recover in cash either the amount or value of such funds so invested

Section 7 The provisions of this act shall be severable and if any of the provisions shall be held to be unconstitutional such decision shall not affect the validity of any of the remaining provisions of this act It is hereby declared as the legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional provision not been included therein

Section 8 This Act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, this bill has been amended but as it has been amended it still contains a vital defect. The principle of this bill is that since the Legislature has stayed foreclosures of mortgages, that banks which have loaned money which are in trust should not be compelled to meet their obligations for a period of two years. The vital defect in the bill is this, if the bank is to have immunity, if it is not to be compelled to meet its obligations, it should be compelled to show, Mr. Speaker, that it is unable to meet its obligations by reason of legislation enacted by this General Assembly. If the mortgage laws passed by the Assembly are not the reason why the banks cannot meet its obligations, then it should be compelled to meet them. If the bank can show that legislation affecting mortgages makes it impossible for the bank to do what it is pledged it would do, then it is justified in asking for some legislation of this kind, but as the measure stands it is essentially unsound.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeable to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, may I ask that the roll call be rescinded and that we be given an opportunity to say something to the House on this bill, which is considered a very important measure? There have been a great many members who have not answered to their names, and I feel with the responsibility to the Chairman of the Banking Committee, who is absent and who particularly asked us, because of his absence, to take care of these bills, that the opportunity should be given to us to say something about them to the House.

The SPEAKER. The Chair wishes to inform the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, that that is entirely a matter for the House to decide. If the House wishes to accede to his request, the House can do so. Does the gentleman wish to make a motion to that effect?

MOTION TO RESCIND ROLL CALL

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the roll call be rescinded in order to permit debate on the bill.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I am compelled to remind the House that I tried to make a similar motion two weeks ago and was informed at that time that it was entirely out of order. The motion was ruled out of order by the Chair.

The SPEAKER. The Chair wishes to state that that is correct. The motion is out of order. There is nothing in order now but the completion of the roll call.

Mr. KANE. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

SENATE

TUESDAY, May 14, 1935.

The Senate met at 12 o'clock noon.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Thomas Kennedy) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. William E. Howard, D. D., offered the following prayer:

Thy Word, O God, teaches us that no man liveth unto himself and no man dieth unto himself. Each of our lives is influenced by the lives of those with whom we daily come in contact. We are today largely what others have made us. Our parents, our teachers, our associates have wielded a mighty power in molding the characters we today possess. How important then it is for us to choose with care the men with whom we associate, the books we read and the surroundings in which we permit ourselves to be placed.

We also exert a subtile yet mighty influence upon the men whose lives we touch. May we live carefully. Lead us day by day so that the words we speak and the activities in which we engage shall tend to inspire and uplift those with whom we touch elbows and rub shoulders as we walk along life's road.

Living, we make the world better or worse. Dying, the record we have written will persist to the betterment or detriment of others.

May today be a segment of time devoted by this Senate to making Pennsylvania a better State in which to live. Amen.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I believe that it is quite necessary, and important, that the Senate should know from an official source the real situation in this State as to the money now left in the treasury for relief; and I will read—and ask that it be made a part of the record—a letter from Robert L. Johnson, Administrator of the State Emergency Relief Fund. The letter is as follows:

"The fund situation for the Relief and Work Programs of the State Emergency Relief Board has reached a very serious point.

"Unless appropriations are made today it will be necessary to terminate the Relief and Work Programs tomorrow, May 15. However, after providing funds for all obligations that have been made to date there is a sufficient unobligated balance in our funds to make it possible to carry cash relief in Philadelphia and Allegheny Counties on an extra day, and possibly two days, beyond the 15th.

"Should appropriations be made by legislative enactment, making it possible for us to obtain a grant from the Federal Emergency Relief Administration, our cash position is such that we can arrange, by deferring payments of relief in kind, to continue the Relief and Work Programs without interruption pending receipt of actual cash from these sources to clear the treasury not later than Monday, May 20."

Mr. PRESIDENT, I ask that this be printed in the Journal as part of today's proceedings.

The PRESIDENT. The statement made by the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, together with the letter from State Emergency Relief Administrator Robert L. Johnson, will be printed in the Legislative Journal as part of today's proceedings.

Whereas, The Congress of the United States has, by an overwhelming vote, passed legislation so providing; and

Whereas, The bill is at present before the President of the United States for action; now, therefore, be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania respectfully petitions His Excellency, the President of the United States, to approve such measure; and, be it further

Resolved, That upon agreement by the Senate this resolution, the Chief Clerk of the Senate shall forthwith send to the President of the United States a telegram, the subject matter of which shall be in manner and form as follows:

"The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania has this day by resolution memorialized your Excellency to approve the bill before you granting immediate cash payment of adjusted compensation to veterans," and, be it further

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I intend to vote for this resolution, but I call the attention of the House to the fact that my attitude on this resolution is at variance with the attitude taken by one of the senators from this State who presumably represents the majority party and presumably represents the view of the majority members of this side of the House.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

REPORT UNDER RESOLUTION NO. 44

Mr. O'KEEFE. Mr. Speaker, I present to the House the report of the Committee pursuant to Resolution No. 44.

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEE TO MEET DURING SESSION OF HOUSE

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the Republican Steering Committee be granted permission to meet for ten or fifteen minutes, during the session of the House.

The motion was agreed to.

RECESS

The SPEAKER. If there are no objections the Chair will at this time declare a recess of fifteen minutes in order to permit the Republican Steering Committee to meet, and also to permit a meeting of the Democratic delegation in the House Caucus Room. Are there objections? The Chair hears none and declares a recess for fifteen minutes.

AFTER RECESS

The SPEAKER (Wilson G. Sarig) in the Chair.

The SPEAKER. The time of recess having expired the House will come to order.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER

The Chair wishes to make an announcement of extraordinary importance and interest to every member.

The Chief Clerk has arranged that the members' mileage from the beginning of the Session until April 1 be paid now, instead of on the final day of the Session at which time, under the law, the final installment of salary is payable. On the day of adjournment the remainder of the mileage, also, will be paid.

This action is a departure because the custom has been to pay the entire mileage on the last day of the Session. But on account of the length of the Session and the long interim between the April 1 salary check, which you have received, and the last day salary check, the Chief Clerk worked out and computed the mileage up and until April 1, which checks now are available at the office of the Chief Clerk. The check you receive now represents your mileage for twelve weeks of the Session.

House of Representatives, May 14, 1935.

Whereas, The voters of the Eighteenth Legislative District of Philadelphia County have, for the first time in many years elected a true Democrat to this House, and have elected him by one of the largest votes ever given in Pennsylvania to a candidate for that office, and

STATEMENT BY MR. HERMANSEN

Mr. HERMANSEN asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I rise at this time in answer to approximately five thousand letters that I have received today. These were all opened, and here is another pack of them. Here is a basketful of them, unopened ones. These letters are in the form of a petition to the House to do something to remedy a condition that exists in the anthracite region at the present time that is bordering on civil war. If you have read the papers today you will notice that there were five men shot this morning. That is not all of the story. This has been going on for sometime now, and the business men in those communities up there have become practically ruined. Turmoil exists everywhere throughout the district, and it seems that there is nothing at the present time but intervention from the state. Now, the people throughout that territory are looking forward to the House of Representatives and the Senate to do something that will alleviate that condition. It is a condition that has confronted us through labor trouble, through dissatisfaction within the organization, and it is a condition that will not rectify itself.

Because of that condition I have been asked to introduce a resolution, and I introduce that resolution at this time and ask that it may be read for the information of the House.

RESOLUTION

COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE LABOR DIFFICULTIES IN LUZERNE AND LACKAWANNA COUNTIES

Mr. HERMANSEN offered a resolution and asked unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 14, 1935.

Whereas, For a period of at least two years, labor difficulties have been experienced in Luzerne and Lackawanna Counties, resulting in the loss of life, destruction of property and rioting; and

Whereas, Business in this region is suffering great loss and unemployment is aggravated; and

Whereas, Those familiar with conditions believe that the only solution to the problem is a thorough investigation of this strife and the ascertainment of the causes thereof; therefore be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), That the President Pro Tempore of the Senate shall appoint two members of the Senate, and the Speaker of the House shall appoint three members of the House of Representativees, who together shall constitute a joint legislative committee whose duty it shall be to make a thorough, impartial and searching investigation of the industrial strife now existing in Luzerne and Lackawanna Counties and the cause of the same, and of such other matters in connection therewith as may be deemed necessary for the information of the committee and the General Assembly;

Resolved, That the said committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman requesting and commending any person or persons to appear before them and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee, and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person, and shall have the force and effect of subpoenas issued out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of said committee shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before the committee. Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to testify before said committee or to produce any books, papers, records or documents, shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonwealth in such cases;

Resolved, That the said committee shall make report to the Governor and to the General Assembly of its findings of facts, with such recommendations as it deems necessary to remedy industrial conditions in the area referred to in this resolution.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give its unanimous consent for the immediate consideration of the resolution? Are there objections?

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker, I object.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears objection and consent is not granted. The resolution will be filed with the Clerk under the rules.

MOTION TO SUSPEND RULE

Mr. HERMANSEN. Mr. peaker, I move that Rule 84 be suspended for the specific purpose of considering the resolution offered by me.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker, I oppose the motion to suspend the rule for immediate consideration. I agree that the resolution is very important and the resolution should be referred for study and going into, as to whether or not it is proper for this House to investigate the matter stated in the resolution. I ask the members of the House to vote against the motion.

On the question recurring.

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. HERMANSEN and Mr. WHITE.

Mr. HERMANSEN. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

(During the verification of the roll.)

Mr. HERMANSEN. Mr. Speaker. I would like to know

If the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Shepard, is recorded as voting in the negative.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Shepard, is not recorded as voting.

Mr. HERMANSEN. Mr. Speaker, I ask that the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Shepard, be recorded, he being in his seat and he properly should vote one way or another.

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, I object to the request to the gentleman from Luzerne, requesting the gentleman from Philadelphia to be recorded.

The SPEAKER. The affirmative roll has been verified.

RESOLUTION NO. 142.

Mr. KOBELAK. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time Resolution No. 142, Printer's No. 1023.

The resolution was twice read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 8, 1935.

Whereas, the Bell Telephone Company of the State of Pennsylvania practically monopolizes the telephone industry in this Commonwealth, and

Whereas, said Telephone Company collects a twenty-five cent service charge for the first two years' use of French Telephones, therefore, be it

Resolved, (the Senate concurring), that the General Assembly requests the Public Service Commission of this Commonwealth to urge the Bell Telephone Company to discontinue any further service charge in the amount of twenty-five cents per month, or any other sum, for the use of French, or any other specially designed telephone.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

STATEMENT BY MR. MORAN

Mr. MORAN asked and obtained consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph today has a statement in it, and as I believe some of our members of the House may think that there is a name used there that they might be construe as being one of the members of this House, and as this particular member is a colleague of mine and is right from the same district as I am, I think that I ought to make this statement or read this statement in the paper.

The heading of the article in the paper is as follows:

"Four Men Fined In Numbers Raid."

"Four men, arrested in raids in Hill district confectionery stores yesterday and charged with writing numbers, were fined in Center Avenue Police Court today.

"Sam Weiss of Wylie Avenue and James Brodnax, of Center Avenue, alleged proprietors of confectionery stores, were fined $10 or 10 days. Boyce Sullivan, owner of a Webster Avenue confectionery, and Charles Johnson of Center Avenue, were fined $25 or 30 days."

Now, Mr. Speaker, I can vouch that Sam Weiss was in the House yesterday and, therefore, this cannot be he.

STATEMENT BY MR. HALUSKA

Mr. HALUSKA asked and obtained consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the baseball game to be played tomorrow, as you all know, has been cancelled until a week from tomorrow at three o'clock standard time, but I wish to announce the program at this time:

Elwood Turner and Joe Simon will run a foot-race promptly at three o'clock. We have also arranged a hog-calling contest between Rev. Ruth and Rev. Shepard.

The Democratic line-up is as follows: Tronzo, Harmuth, Ominsky, Decker, Haberlen, Diehl, Cliff Patterson, Coakley, Brownfield, Holland, Falkenstein, and Tumelty. Leo Fee is the mascot: Cochran is the score keeper. James Murtha and Tom McGrail will be the umpires.

I want to inform all the members to bring their own uniforms and all of their tools. I understand that Connie Mack is going to give the balls, and I would ask the members to bring their bats and uniforms.

I wish to state that the cigar stand in the back of the House has made a very generous proposition. They have offered to supply Coca Cola free at the ball game.

I also wish to say that I have appointed Hiram J. Andrews of Cambria County as publicity man, also Mr. Chervenak and Mr. Westrick as official rooters.

Mr. Speaker, at this time I wish to interrogate the gentleman from Carbon, Mr. Bernhard, the manager of the Republican baseball team.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Carbon permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BERNHARD. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SPEAKER. I desire to ask the gentleman from Carbon, in view of the fact that our pitching staff is somewhat weak at this time may I have permission to use a ringer for the base ball game next Thursday?

Mr. BERNHARD. Mr. Speaker, why does not the gentleman from Cambria let me know the name of the ringer and I might then give the question consideration.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker, the ringer is none other than our own Jack Breslin.

Mr. BERNHARD. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman who is this Jack Breslin?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker, he is the pitcher.

Mr. BERNHARD. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Haluska.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Cambria permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. BERNHARD. Mr. Speaker, in view of the absence of the captain of the team I would like to state that if the gentleman from Cambria wants to have a game between the present administration, I believe that Mr. Breslin is a member of that organization, I would suggest that they challenge the former administration to a baseball game because I understand that former Governor Pinchot is back from the South Sea Islands in a bronzed condition, and you probably might be able to get a game with his administration.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker, that is a very good suggestion.

STATEMENT BY MR. FURMAN

Mr. Furman asked and received unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, House Bill No. 2184, which is known as the rural state highway law, has been in process of drafting for two or three weeks. The time is getting short and the Highway Department has asked that the representatives from each county contact with Mr. Van Riper in room 311, in regard to the section of the road that they wish taken over. I have a list of the counties here that they wish the representatives from those counties to come into the office before they leave Harrisburg this week. I will read this list: Adams, Allegheny, Armstrong, Bradford, Bucks, Chester, Dauphin, Elk, Forrest, Franklin, Fulton, Indiana, Lackawanna, Juniata, Lehigh, Luzerne, McKean, Montgomery, Montour, Northampton, Northumberland, Perry, Potter, Schuylkill, Sullivan, Susquehanna, Westmoreland and Wyoming.

I would urge the numbers of these counties to see Mr. Van Riper in room 311 in regard to the sections of the road that they wish to have placed on this list.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Delaware will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. Speaker, on May 1, in the record of consideration of House Bill 1886, I am recorded as voting "aye," whereas I should be recorded as voting "no." It is my conviction that the provisions of this bill should be left to the judgment of the district attorney.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman under his question of personal privilege will be spread upon the Journal.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

Mr. CONDON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 2037, Printer's No. 962, on page 26 of today's calendar, bills on final passage postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. CONDON.

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 2037, entitled:

An Act to amend section eighteen of an act approved the sixteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (P. L. 207), entitled "An act providing when, how, upon what property, and to what extent, liens shall be allowed for taxes and for municipal improvements, for the removal of nuisances, and for water rents or rates, sewer rates, and lighting rates; for the procedure upon claims filed therefor; the methods for preserving such liens and enforcing payment of such claims; the effect of judicial sales of the properties liened; the distribution of the proceeds of such sales, and the redemption of the property therefrom; for the lien and collection of certain taxes heretofore assessed, and of claims for municipal improvements made and nuisances removed, within six months before the passage of this act; and for the procedure on tax and municipal claims filed under other and prior acts of Assembly."

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Condon.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Condon, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CONDON. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BLUMBERG. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Condon, kindly explain to the House what changes this proposed bill makes in the existing law?

Mr. CONDON. Mr. Speaker, The real purpose of the bill in question is to afford relief to the present distressed real estate owners from the excessive costs which are added to the unpaid taxes and municipal claims due by them when the taxes and claims in question are $50 or less.

Under the law which now is in effect, a city or municipality must advertise the tax or municipal claim in one newspaper and in one legal periodical in order to maintain the lien on the real estate affected. The cost of advertising the claim in the city of Philadelphia is between $20 and $30 and this amount is added to the tax or claim. No one receives the benefit of this advertising other than the newspapers. The city or municipality must pay out the money and in many cases must wait a long number of years before ever recovering the money. In some instances a claim of $3 or $4 for repairing a sidewalk or a claim for taxes amounting to $10 or $15 amounts up to $40 or $50 within the course of two or three years due to the necessity of advertising the claim in the newspapers.

The bill introduced by Mr. Condon provides that judgment can be taken on a sci. fa. issued on such claims sixty days after the claim is posted by the sheriff on the property affected by the tax or municipal claim. Under the present law this posting must be done and then the claim must be advertised in the newspapers.

The Condon Bill provides that when the claim is $50 or less the posting is to be sufficient and the claim need not be advertised. Needleess to say, the legislation in question will bring great relief to the small property owner who receives no benefit from the advertisement, and is also favored by every department of the city of Philadelphia.

It might also be stated that the advertising in the newspapers is never read by any individual but is spread over three or four sheets of the newspapers that would take a person a half day in order to find any particular item. The city of Philadelphia pays out around $100,000 per year for advertising and often has to wait years before they recover the same.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 79, Printer's No. 857, on page 24 of today's calendar, bills on final passage postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. TAHL,

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 79, entitled:

An Act to amend paragraphs (a) and (b) of section three hundred and thirteen of the act approved the seventeenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (P. L. 789), entitled "An act relating to insurance; establishing an insurance department; and amending, revising, and consolidating the law relating to the licensing, qualification, regulation, examination, suspension, and dissolution of insurance companies, Lloyds associations, reciprocal and inter-insurance exchanges, and certain societies and orders, the examination and regulation of fire insurance rating bureaus, and the licensing and regulation of insurance agents and brokers; providing penalties, and repealing existing laws," increasing the amount of reserve required of stock and mutual casualty insurance companies and exchanges for certain outstanding losses.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BURKE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this is a rather important bill and I think that all the members should be fully cognizant of the way the bill might operate in case it becomes a law. The bill suggests an increase in the amount of reserve which an insurance company must set up against each case in suit against the company. Now, under the present law reserves of casualty companies are calculated by figuring out and computing a reserve against each case, depending upon the length of time the statement in the case has been filed. There is another method of computing the reserve and that is to take the earned premium during the three preceding years and take sixty-five percent of that earned premium. In most insurance companies this sixty-five percent of the earned premium exceeds the reserve that is computed on a case basis and the company is required to set up whichever of those two reserves is higher.

The bill increases the amount of reserve on each case, and I want to tell the members of this House that if this bill should become a law it will place the insurance law of Pennsylvania, so far as the reserves go, out of line with the insurance law of every state in the Union and because of retaliatory provisions in the insurance code of every state, it would mean that Pennsylvania would be injured in those states where they do business.

Mr. FLINCHBAUGH. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill, Mr. Tahl.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Tahl, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. TAHL. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. FLINCHBAUGH. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the sponsor of this bill, Mr. Tahl, whether or not he would agree to refer this back to committee for further consideration.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, I would not.

Mr. FLINCHBAUGH. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentleman of the House, this bill was before the Insurance Committee for quite a long time. There are serious objections to this bill as stated by the former speaker. The forty-eight states today are operating in complete harmony along similar lines under the present act. This bill tends to amend the act of 1921. I want to repeat that the forty-eight states of the Union are today working in complete harmony under the present set-up and if we seek to amend this act, we feel sure that every state would pass retaliatory measures and it would upset the friendly co-operative relations which exist today among the several insurance departments of the forty-eight states of the United States.

I ask the members of this House to vote "no" on this measure.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the purpose of this bill is for the protection of those persons who are injured in case of accident. A number of persons obtained adjustments and verdicts against defendants who were insured, but the insurance companies were unable to pay the claims because of the fact that they went into liquidation.

Now, this merely increases the reserve to the extent of twenty-five per cent. When we bear in mind that this reserve was set up in 1921, fourteen years ago and is the reserve at the present time, certainly an increase of twenty-five per cent in fourteen years is not a large amount.

The insurance companies that are in sound condition do not oppose this bill. The bill will reduce litigation. It will tend to settle claims promptly and those injured will not be obliged to hire lawyers and put their cases in court. This bill is intended to reduce rather than increase litigation. The reserve at the present time is so small that the insurance companies prefer to let their cases go into court rather than settle promptly. I think this is a fair bill and I think that the insurance companies that are in sound condition are satisfied with this bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. ZIMMERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Greene, Mr. Furman.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Greene permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. FURMAN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ZIMMERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I would ask that the gentleman from Greene, Mr. Furman, tell the House the purpose of the amendments that have just been presented.

Mr. FURMAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill has been on the calendar for sometime. There have been some objections to it. We have tried to eliminate those objections by these amendments. One of the objections was that it would be impossible for the townships to take advantage of PWA funds by the method in which these funds would be allocated to the townships. One amendment clarifies that situation by permitting, with the approval of the Secretary of Highways, the spending of this money on these different projects.

Mr. ZIMMERMAN. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman state whether or not the amendments that have just been presented will change the original intent of the bill.

Mr. FURMAN. Mr. Speaker, I do not think that they do.

Mr. ZIMMERMAN. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman say whether or not the amendments that have just been presented will void the Governor's statement made on March 22nd?

Mr. FURMAN. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman from Montgomery I will say that these amendments provide for the reduction of taxes in townships of the second class. That was the intention of the bill in the first place. The method by which that is done has been changed by these amendments. There are other amendments in here that also provide that this money shall be used for construction in addition to maintenance.

Mr. ZIMMERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I don't believe that the gentleman understood my question. My question was as to whether or not these amendments changed or made void the promise that has been made by the Governor in a formal statement issued by him on March 22nd.

Mr. FURMAN. I do not think they do, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ZIMMERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman who is the sponsor of these amendments.

Mr. FURMAN. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the gentleman from Montgomery, I will say that these amendments were prepared by the Department of Highways.

Mr. ZIMMERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman as to whether or not the State Highway Department through its Secretary, Mr. Van Dyke, promised this money to the townships if the townships would on March 25th have reduced the taxes by the amount promised.

Mr. FURMAN. Mr. Speaker, this money has been promised, I think, to the townships, to be used in the townships for the maintenance and construction of roads and bridges.

Mr. ZIMMERMAN. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman if these amendments will change the intent of Resolution No. 92 which was passed unanimously by this House?

Mr. FURMAN. Mr. Speaker, I do not think they do.

Mr. ZIMMERMAN. Mr. Speaker, are these amendments in violation of Articles three, section one of the Constitution?

Mr. FURMAN. Mr. Speaker, I am unable to answer that question. I do not have the section and the article.

Mr. ZIMMERMAN. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Greene, Mr. Furman, kindly answer the question as to whether or not tax relief can be given unless this bill is passed in its original form?

Mr. FURMAN. Mr. Speaker, I would say that it can be given and tax relief will be given by the passage of this bill as amended.

Mr. ZIMMERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I would like further to ask this question, do these amendments destroy the home rule feature of the original bill?

Mr. FURMAN. Mr. Speaker, in the answer to that question I will say that they do not destroy home rule. To clarify that statement, I will say that this money will be expended by the Department of Highways in the townships through the duly authorized officials of the townships, and they are the road supervisors elected by the people in the townships.

Mr. ZIMMERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask further the following question. Does the new section in this bill make additional taxes possible?

Mr. FURMAN. Mr. Speaker, in reply to that question, there is one amendment that will do that, and that is that the townships may, with the approval of the Court of Quarter Sessions, levy an additional five mills for the purpose of taking advantage of additional PWA funds in the construction of roads or bridges.

Mr. ZIMMERMAN. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, House Bill No. 977 constitutes a very definite program, that was agreed upon by both parties. It constitutes a program that constituted a platform of both parties during the last campaign.

House Bill No. 977 is a tax reduction measure, to which both parties agreed. In starting the legislation in looking forward to the passage of this bill, the Governor of the Commonwealth chose to issue a statement on March twenty-second in which he said, first of all, that the monies would be sent back to the township supervisors for use upon their roads. He went further than that. The Governor authorized the township supervisors to lower their tax levies because of the money or in contemplation of the money that the supervisors would receive through the enactment of this measure. Then following that, this House passed Resolution No. 92, passed it unanimously, which again fortified the supervisors and gave them the encouragement to reduce the taxes in contemplation of getting this money. Some of the township supervisors have already done that, and, mark you, the tax duplicates have left their control and hands. Now, we are putting amendments into this bill which practically take away entirely the tax reduction feature of the measure. In fact, it makes it a tax measure because of the fact that under an amendment in this bill just presented in this House tonight, it will become necessary to increase and to levy a five mill tax upon the taxpayers of the counties and townships to take advantage of the Federal funds. Therefore, this measure which was originally conceived as a tax reduction measure now becomes a tax program that is going to increase the taxation in Pennsylvania. That was a thing that we both objected to, that we both said would not be done. But we are confronted now with a condition after this House passed a resolution which practically said or did say in effect that House Bill No. 977 would be passed by this body. We are now undertaking, through amendments, to take out everything which was originally intended and placed in the bill to reduce taxes in the State of Pennsylvania.

One of the questions that I asked the gentleman from Greene, Mr. Furman, was a question as to whether or not these amendments changed and completely made void the promise made by the Governor of the Commonwealth in a statement issued to the people on March twenty-second. That is exactly what has happened in this case, both through the amendments and through the introduction of the amendments to this bill. The Governor's promise to the people has been completely changed and it now becomes purely and exactly null and void simply because we are putting back into this bill a taxing feature that does not belong there. Furthermore, it places in the hands of the Secretary of Revenue the power to withhold monies that have been appropriated by the Legislature for road building and maintenance and keeping that money in the Highway Department. By that I mean that it takes away from the Legislative branch the power that really belongs to this branch, and in so doing it gives to the Secretary of Highways the power to keep that money in the Motor Fund which is certainly not the intent of this bill nor was it the intent of the Governor at the time he issued his statement on March twenty-second.

For these reasons and mainly because we have before us in this measure,—eliminating the amendments, if you please,—the real genuine opportunity to reduce taxes in Pennsylvania to allow the road supervisors to reduce taxes in proportion to the amount that the township receives from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. That is the intent of the bill and that was the intent of the Governor of the Commonwealth at the time when he gave to the people of the Commonwealth his promise, and the promise of this House through the amendments, and the resolution which we passed, that that would be done.

Therefore, ladies and gentlemen of the House, I ask you to vote down these amendments.

Mr. FURMAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, House Bill No. 977 is an amendment to the Parkinson Act which was passed by this Legislature in the session of nineteen hundred and thirty-three. This bill provides for the expenditure of the balance that was allocated at that time in townships of the second class.

Now, these amendments have been presented here for the purpose of eliminating objections that have come up since the passage of that Act.

One of those objections was that this money could not be used for the construction of roads but only for maintenance, and by these amendments we provide that this money can be used for the construction as well as the maintenance of roads and bridges.

The gentleman from Montgomery has stated that the purpose of both parties was to enact legislation to reduce taxes. This measure as amended is a tax reducing measure.

He says, further, that by these amendments it will be necessary for the townships to raise additional levies, and I am going to read for the information of the House that amendment which I think will clarify the situation:

"Any township which desires to make application to the Federal authorities for grants of funds to be expended for construction or reconstruction in and by such township which require the expenditure of township funds for the purchase of materials or the rental of equipment or engineering or administration expenses, may, with the approval of the Court of Quarter Sessions, make an additional special levy not exceeding five (5) mills to be used for such purposes only."

Also in case these funds that are expended are not used for maintenance, with the approval of the Department of Highways these amendments will permit township authorities to take advantage of Federal funds in the construction of roads or bridges.

This is a tax reduction measure and these amendments clarify the situation existing today. In fact they will make it possible to carry out the orders that the Highway Department issued a few weeks ago. It is giving back to the township supervisors more authority than they had previously under the Parkinson Act.

It is a home rule measure and it does reduce taxes in these districts. For those reasons I ask the membership of this House to support these amendments.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am sorry that I must disagree with the gentleman from Greene, but I think there is one major issue which is now before the House.

Resolution No. 92, which has been referred to and which was passed by this House pledged this House to the enactment of legislation. I wish to read a part of that resolution as follows:

"Resolved that the General Assembly hereby authorizes and requests the township supervisors in all townships of the second class to reduce road tax levies for the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five,"
and then further down:
"the General Assembly hereby declares its purpose forthwith to enact suitable legislation to provide for the allocation and payment to the various townships of the second class for expenditure for general road and bridge purposes of the unencumbered balance as of April first one thousand nine hundred thirty-five of the funds allocated by the Department of Highways for expenditure under the terms of the above cited Parkinson Act exclusive of the sum of two million three hundred sixty-five thousand dollars ($2,365,000) heretofore transferred to the General Fund for relief purposes."

According to all the information which seems to be available, this resolution was endorsed by the Governor and was also endorsed by the Secretary of Highways. Upon the promise definitely and certainly made by this General Assembly, the township supervisors in many of the districts set their millage and proceeded to fix their budget in accordance with the terms of this resolution. Now, the amendments proposed will do exactly the opposite from what this resolution pledged this Assembly to do. In the first place, it removes from the bill, as I understand it, the provision, which is pledged in the resolution, providing for the allocation and payment to the various townships of the second class for expenditure for general road and bridge purposes the unencumbered balance as of April first, nineteen thirty-five of the funds of the Parkinson Act. That provision in the bill is taken out. The word "expenditure" in line twenty-four on page three is removed from the bill. Practically the entire wording of that resolution is taken out of the bill at one place or another. Instead of paying this money to the township supervisors as the resolution has pledged, the amendments provide for the expenditure in the county or in the township of certain funds and the pledge is not definite as to the amount that will be expended. This bill, if the amendments are adopted, will not carry out the provisions of this resolution. This resolution has pledged this Assembly to do certain things. If we adopt these amendments we will do exactly opposite from what we have been pledged to do.

On the faith of that pledge certain officials have acted, the township supervisors have acted, and I feel, Mr. Speaker and members of the House, that it is our duty to carry out the provisions of this resolution and defeat these amendments.

Mr. ZIMMERMAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, quite briefly I would like to point out the fact that the tax payers and the road supervisors of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania have been made acquainted with the fact that this bill was conceived as a tax reduction measure.

I would life to say, further, that if this bill is passed in its original form—leaving out the amendments that have been presented tonight—it will not be necessary to go back to the people of Pennsylvania in the townships and request a five mill increase in the tax. If this bill is passed in its original form, the townships will have sufficent monies coming from the Commonwealth and coming from the Highway Department to take advantage of Federal aid without the necessity of one mill increase in taxation.

I would like also to point out the fact that it has been mentioned by the gentleman from Greene, Mr. Furman, that construction work is included in the amendments. I believe that that is a misunderstanding. The construction and road building feature of this bill is contained in the orginal measure and not contained in the amendments. Therefore, if we wish to place the townships in a position where they may take advantage of Federal aid without increasing taxation, then the proper thing for this House to do is to carry out the mandate that it laid down in its resolution and pass this bill in its original form. It will thereby be a tax reduction measure and not a tax raising measure.

Mr. FURMAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, to clarify a misunderstanding here. One of these amendments on line six, page two, amends the title by inserting after the word "appropriation" and before the word "by" the following: "for the construction of second-class township streets, roads and bridges requiring the reduction of tax levies."

It is provided that this money be used for the construction of roads and bridges. It is not a tax raising measure. It reduces the taxes in the townships. It also provides, further, that when the township supervisors have already levied their taxes, they may still make reductions.

In regard to the aditional five mills, that is put in there in case some of the richer townships may have a number of roads that they wish to have improved. In that case they go to the Court of Quarter Sessions and getting the approval of that court, then the additional levy may be made and in no other way. It does not make it mandatory to raise the taxes in any manner.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Session 1935. 131st of the General Assembly.

Vol. 18. HARRISBURG, PA., WEDNESDAY, MAY 15, 1935 No. 62

SENATE

WEDNESDAY, MAY 15, 1935.

The Senate met at 12 o'clock noon.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Thomas Kennedy) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. William E. Howard, D. D., offered the following prayer:

Our heavenly Father, Thou hast placed us in a world of change and mutability. Men are here today and gone tomorrow; nations rise and fall; kingdoms flourish and decay; seasons come and go; tides swell and recede. Rivers vary in their courses and the shore lines of oceans shift with time. And how often fortunes are amassed to be dissipated. What we now accept as truth may in future days be proven false. Even our bodies are constantly being remade so that no element found in them a few years ago remains today.

But in the midst of all this instability Thou hast given us three unchangeable, immutable things: faith, hope and love. These are not material and tangible, yet how real and potent they are and how eternal. Thou dost offer them to us all. Faith in God and our fellow men. Hope for better things in this life and supreme happiness in the life to come. Love for Thee and humanity.

Of these three, love is the greatest. Grant that it may rule our lives and sway the world. Perfect love casteth out fear. "He that loveth not knoweth not God, for God is love."

When love rules our hearts, peace and prosperity will drive away distress and depression. May the law of love and love as a law control this and every other legislative body in our land. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. SONES, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal approved.

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO BILLS COMPRISING THE RELIEF TAX PROGRAM

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I have been reliably informed that the Federal Administrator, Harry L. Hopkins, has said he will accept from the Legislature a resolution dealing with relief, in the event the bills are delayed in preparation; and I therefore present this resolution, but do not ask for immediate consideration of it, merely offering it so that it will be before the Senate if it becomes necessary to use it.

The resolution was twice read as follows:

In the Senate, May 15, 1935.

Whereas, The Relief Administrator Harry Hopkins has decided and has definitely stated that the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania must assure him by May 15, 1935 that legislation will be enacted that will produce Sixty Million Dollars for relief before the Federal Government will allocate to Pennsylvania Federal funds to be used for relief purposes;

Whereas, The failure to pass such legislation will almost immediately cause a discontinuance of relief in Pennsylvania, resulting in untold suffering, starvation and may lead to conditions with which our Peace Officers would be unable to cope;

Whereas, The Republican Senators in Caucus, by their representatives, submitted to the Governor a program formulated to produce almost Sixty Million Dollars with the definite promise to have all of the bills reported out for action, and, while no assurance was given the Governor that all of the 31 Republican Senators would vote for all this program, it was the concensus of opinion of the Republican Caucus that the number of Republican Senators who would vote for this program, joined with the 19 Democratic Senators, would give a sufficient number of votes for its passage;

Whereas, A copy of the program submitted to the Governor is attached;

Resolved, That the Clerk of the Senate read each item of this program separately and that the roll be called and the vote recorded on each of the items in the said program;

Resolved, That the Members of this body tonight by their votes indicate what their votes will be when this legislation comes before them for final passage;

Resolved, That the House of Representatives be requested to pass a resolution indicating that they have already passed or intend to pass legislation that will assure the raising of the amount requested by Administrator Hopkins;

Resolved, That if and when these Resolutions are passed, copies of such Resolutions be directed by the Chief Clerks of the Senate and of the House to Relief Administrator Harry Hopkins at Washington, D. C.

The PRESIDENT. Does the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, ask for immediate consideration of the resolution?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I object.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, does not ask for immediate consideration.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I move that the resolution, which was read from the desk, be referred to the Committee on Finance.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair was about to suggest, in view of the Finance Committee's handling these matters, that it might be well, in line with the spirit of the Senator who presented the resolution, that the resolution be permitted to lie on the table pending consideration of these matters, while the bills are with the committee.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I insist upon my motion.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I think that we should act just as expeditiously upon this resolution, or some resolution of a similar nature, as it is possible to do under the circumstances. I have been informed this morning that relief did stop in Pennsylvania at noon today; and I think we should dispose of this with as great expedition as possible, to relieve any condition that might arise out of that situation.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, the committee composed of Republicans and Democrats had a meeting in the office of the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, and we have agreed to pass a resolution for $3,000,000; and we were just informed by the Administration that the resolution was on its way to this body. That is the reason I object to the passage of this particular resolution, which had not been called to our attention.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President; I would like to call the attention of the Senate to the fact that yesterday we passed finally an appropriaion bill transferring $3,000,000 from the General Fund, which bill is now in the House.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, the understanding, as I understand it, is that the House will pass a resolution agreeing to pass the bill already passed by the Senate. It takes no action by the Senate, of any kind. We have appropriated $3,000,000.00, by this Senate, for unemployment relief, as required by Mr. Hopkins; and it is supposed that the House will pass a resolution to adopt that bill, which, we understand and expect, will take care of the situation,

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, in reply to the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure, when he said that I had not called this to their attention, I beg to remind him and the other members of the Senate that I did call this to the attention of the Senators—that I had such a resolution—on Monday night, and that I would present it on Wednesday. That I did.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

SECRETARY TO PERFORM DUTIES OF CHIEF CLERK

Mr. HOMSHER offered the following resolution, which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate of Pennsylvania, May 15, 1935.

Resolved, That during the absence and inability of the Chief Clerk of the Senate to act, the powers and duties of the Chief Clerk shall be exercised and performed by the Secretary of the Senate.

RECESS

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, I have been informed that the amendments to the taxbills will in all probability be prepared and ready for consideration by two o"clock, when we will proceed with the calendar. I, therefore, move that the Senate do now take a recess until two o'clock this afternoon.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President. I second the motion.

And the amendments made theeto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which this bill passed third reading.

Mr. GRAFF. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I move that the bill be recommitted to the Committee on Public Health for amendment.

Mr. GRAFF. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Sernate agree to the motion?

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I hope that the Senate will not recommit this bill to the Committee on Public Health, because I see no reason why that should be done. This bill has been on the calendar for a week, and day after day I agreed that the bill go over in its order, so that the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, and his friends, if they had any suggestions to make regarding changes, might have an opportunity to present them, and we would have been glad to receive them; and up to the present moment there have been conferences and meetings between those who favored the bill and those who objected to the bill, and we have not been able to reach an agreement; and we have decided that we were going to vote on this bill, win or lose. Therefore, I hope the Senator will not favor this motion.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, my reason for making this motion is that I do not want to be placed in the position of opposing the bill. The purpose of the bill is a laudable one, in my judgment, it being to better define the practice of optometry, and to protect that particular department from charlatans who may commit fraud; but as the bill is drawn it is, in my opinion, building up optometry at the expense of osteopathy, and at the expense of chiropractors who are licensed to practice, and, possibly, at the expense of others in Pennsylvania, I think.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Aron, will state his point of order.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, is debating the merirts of the bill; and that is not in order at this time.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair is of the opinion that the point of order taken by the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Aron, is well taken; and the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, will confine himself to the motion.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I think that it is better that this bill be amended and put in satisfactory shape rather than that the issues be drawn at this time. Therefore, I hope the bill will be recommitted, so that it may be amended and put in proper form.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. REED (Dauphin) and Mr. HOWELL, and were as follows, viz:

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 420 (House Bill Na. 181), entitled:

An Act to amend section two hundred and twenty of the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (P. L. 448) entitled "An act relating to fish and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating to fish in the inland waters and the boundary lakes and boundary rivers of the Commonwealth" as amended permitting eel chutes on the north branch of the Susquehanna river to the Wyoming-Luzerne County line

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to, and the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, with reference to Senate Bill No. 420, in conversation with a member of the Fish commission and a member of the Department of Forest and Waters, they informed me that for many, many years there has been an attempt made to start ell chutes—If you are not familiar with what that is, I will not attempt to tell you—in the Susquehanna river and various other rivers in the State. This is merely a subterfuge. It is an easy way to catch fish, and as I understand it, the Department of Fisheries, of the State is opposed to the placing of these chutes in any of our streams. I merely give that to you for your information. I am not familiar with the catching of fish through an eel chute. I am just making an attempt to inform you that those who, I do believe, know the situation with regard to fishing in his State, are opposed to the placing of eel chutes in any of our streams.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, for the information of the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Rodgers, who evidently is not aware that this law has gone through, and you are permitted to catch eels in the Susquehanna river with eel chutes, this law is just extending the limit. The limit at the present time is at the bridge in Berwick, and we are trying to extend the limit in this bill that you will be able to catch eels in chutes as far up as the Wyoming county line. You may catch eels in chutes, or baskets, whichever you want to call it, in the Susquehanna river as far down as the Clarks Ferry bridge, and as far up as Milton on the one side, and as far as Berwick on the other side of the river, and you may also catch them in the Juniata river. I do know whether you knew that or not, that is the law.

Mr. HARVEY. Mr. President, I would like to correct the Senator from Northumberland, Mr. Miller. This bill has been amended to go only as far as Pittston City, and it does not go above that, where the bass fishing is.

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, I still insist that the purpose of a chute is not to catch eels, but to catch fish.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, this is one of the two bills that the sub-committee of the Finance Committee has not agreed upon, and I am offering amendments to this bill. These amendments are precisely the same as the amendments which may be proposed by Mr. Owlett, except that these proposed amendments do not allow for any limitation of the increased taxation made against utilities.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I desire to object to the amendments offered by the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman. The amendments he has offered make certain necessary changes to this bill but they do not limit the imposition of the increased taxes provided for in this bill to a period of two years. This program, as agreed to be submitted to the Senate by the Finance Committee, was a program limited for a two-year period. All the other bills in the program are limited for two years. If the Senate votes down the amendments offered by Mr. Huffman, I have here amendments to be introduced which will incorporate all the amendments he has offered, and in addition limit the increased taxes to a period of two years. I, therefore, ask that the Senate adopt these amendments.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I move to amend Section 1, page 5, line 20, by striking out with heavy-faced brackets the word "municipality" and inserting in lieu thereof: "municipally"; also page 5, line 22, by striking out with heavy-faced brackets the words "within the purview of this act"; also page 5, line 22, by inserting after the word "municipality" the following: "to the extent of such gross receipts as are derived from business done outside the limits of the municipality"; also page 5, by inserting after line 27, the following section: "Section 2. Of the proceeds from the tax imposed by this act, the sum of two million dollars derived from the tax imposed for the six months' periods ending June thirtieth, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five, and December thirty-first, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five, shall be used only for unemployment relief and for such purposes is hereby appropriated. The balance of said proceeds for said periods shall be credited to the General Fund. All other taxes, penalties and interest received and collected under the provisions of this act shall be credited to the General Fund."

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I second the motion.

So the question was determined in the affirmative.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section as amended?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I move to amend section 1, page 10, line 7, by inserting after the word "Pennsylvania" the following: "Provided further, That the tax imposed under the provisions of this act on corporations, joint-stock associations, limited partnerships and companies, for the years one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven and one thousand nine hundred and thirty-eight, on reports filed for the calendar years one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six and one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven, or for the fiscal years ending during the calendar years one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven and one thousand nine hundred and thirty-eight, shall be at the rate of three mills upon each dollar of the actual value of the whole capital stock, and for the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-nine and one thousand nine hundred and forty, shall be at the rate of one mill upon each dollar of the actual value of the whole capital stock, and after the year one thousand nine hundred and forty no tax whatever on capital stock shall be imposed."

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I offer this amendment to try to do away with the unscientific Act which we have had since 1844—the capital stock tax; and in support of my position I would like to read a few lines from a booklet entitled "Taxation and Education in Pennsylvania," written by a noted tax expert. It is as follows: "One source of your State revenue is a capital stock tax, a five mill tax on the actual value in cash of the capital stock of domestic and foreign corporations doing business in Pennsylvania. Established in 1844, it is a good revenue producer for Pennsylvania; but it hasn't any relation at all to ability to pay, because perhaps the capital stock of a corporation is not at all related to how much money that corporation is making. Therefore, it is unsound in its general principle."

This amendment will encourage the manufacturers who will have this tax imposed upon them; and if they live long enough they will be relieved of the capital stock tax, and also every other corporation; and it will be a deterrent of any exodus of manufacturers from this great Commonwealth.

The capital stock tax is a capital levy, and it is unjustifiable. I figure it brings in about twenty-five millions in a biennium, but I suspect that if the personal income tax is declared constitutional, the thirty millions therefrom will more than make up for our cutting down the capital stock tax. You may call it a gesture, but it is such a strong gesture that perhaps it might better be called a gesticulation.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I desire to call the attention of the Senate to the fact that the amendments just adopted by the Senate will limit the tax, as far as manufacturing companies are concerned, to a period of two years. In other words, it goes off automatically at the end of two years.

Now, perhaps, we all agree, or many of us agree, with what Dr. Woodward says—to the end that capital stock taxes are unscientific, because they levy taxes on capital regardless of whether the capital is producing income or not; and it seems to me that in view of the fact that this is an emergency measure, and in view of the fact that it is settled in our tax law, and no one knows how long the emergency is going to last, no one knows whether the State can afford to lose the revenue that it would lose by a greater reduction of this tax, as provided for by these amendments, it seems to me the amendments offered by Dr. Woodward, good though they may be in principle, at this time ought to be voted down.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I have the right to speak twice, I believe, and I will be very brief; but I think the answer is quite complete—that no one can guarantee the discontinuance of this tax at the end of two years. You very often get an emergency tax, and it goes on; therefore, this is a much safer remedy than to perhaps delude ourselves that we will be free of this tax at the end of two years. This is more of a safeguard.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I do not think that this body has a right to take away a revenue-producing tax from the fiscal part of the Commonwealth unless there is substituted for it some other tax. It is my thought that the income tax, the tax on net income of corporations would be a proper substitute for what I have always thought a vicious tax. As has been said here today, this tax is on capital stock, with no relation to the profits of the business; and inasmuch as the answer to my question may determine my vote on this motion, I would just like to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Dr. Woodward, who I understand is a member of the Finance Committee.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, does the program contemplate the limitation of the effectiveness of House Bill No. 1192 to a two-year period, or is the net income tax bill, as drawn, in such shape that it can be amended to provide for a permanent income tax on the net income of corporations?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I think all our income taxes will be permanent.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Then, it seems to me, Mr. President, that under that situation no one should vote for amendments to remove tax revenue.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, the personal income tax is a substitute.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, but it is only for two years.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, for the information of the Senate, all of the emergency legislation as agreed upon, or as amended here on the floor, is limited to two years, including the corporation and income tax bills.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. WOODWARD and Mr. ARON and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—2

So the question was decided in the negative.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

The second section of the bill was read as follows and agreed to:

Section 2 If this act is declared unconstitutional by a final judgment order or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction all the provisions of section twenty-one of the act amended by this act pertaining to the taxation of the capital stock of foreign corporations which were made inapplicable and inoperative thereto by this amendment shall thereupon become operative and applicable in respect to such corporations from the effective date of this act and such corporations shall for that period and thereafter be taxed to the same extent and in the same manner as if this amendment had not been enacted In such event any taxes which were settled under this act shall to the extent that such taxes have been paid and are unrefunded be credited against the taxes settled and imposed for the same period under the provisions of said section twenty-one which are again made operative and applicable to foreign corporations by this section Provided That if such credit exceeds the taxes due the excess may be refunded upon application being made to the Board of Finance and Revenue in the manner prescribed by law

The third section of the bill was read as follows:

Section 3 The provisions of this act shall be retroactive to the first day of January one thousand nine hundred thirty-four so that capital stock of domestic corporations limited partnerships and joint-stock associations organized for laundering for the processing and curing of meats their products and by-products and for manufacturing purposes shall pay the tax license imposed for the calendar years one thousand nine hundred thirty-four and one thousand nine hundred thirty-five in the same fashion as other corporations limited partnerships and joint-stock associations

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, this is the so-called "manufacturers" tax bill, and I am offering amendments to the bill. The amendments are not objected to by the Republicans in the Senate but the amendments I am offering do not limit the taxation on manufacturers to any period of time.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, the situation with this bill is precisely the same as the previous bill. The amendments introduced by the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, take care of certain necessary changes, but do not limit the period for which the tax is imposed to the emergency of two years. If these amendments introduced by Senator Huffman are voted down, I have another set of amendments, which include all of the necessary changes as provided by his amendments and also include amendments which limit the tax to two years.

I, therefore, ask the Senate to vote down the amendments to be offered by the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I move to amend section 3, page 11, line 1, by striking out the words "thirty-four" and insert in lieu thereof "thirty-five; also page 11, line 5, by striking out the word "license"; also page 11, line 6, by striking out the words "years one thousand nine hundred thirty-four and" and insert in lieu thereof "year"; also page 11, line 7, by inserting after the word "thirty-five" the following: "or for the fiscal year beginning in the calendar year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five, and thereafter."

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

So, Mr. President, I make a motion that Senate Bill No. 717 (House Bill No. 838), the bill just read, be recommitted to the Committee on Finance for the purpose of a hearing, which will be held at two o'clock on next Monday afternoon.

Mr. CHAPMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, as Chairman of the Committee on Finance, I received today a number of telegrams from leaders of industry throughout the State, requesting the committee to hold a hearing on this Senate Bill No. 717, which we have just considered. Industrial interests throughout the State realize the effect of this taxation, not only as far as the owners of the industries are concerned, but also with regard to its effect on labor. This afternoon the House of Representatives passed a resolution assuring the passage of the Gelder Bill, which will assure $3,000,000.00 for relief for the next month; so there is no real necessity of speeding these bills through the Senate at this time.

The Committee on Finance has granted a hearing to every group requesting a hearing during this session, and I would like the members of this Senate to recommit this bill for the purpose of a hearing. It has been our practice to grant hearings. These are important persons, and this is an important bill, and I feel that the practice will be carried out.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, this bill has been in the Senate since the 26th of March. During that time there have been more than six weeks during which hearings could have been held if the manufacturing interests of Pennsylvania had wanted a hearing. I think it is unfair for them at this time, when we have worked out a compromise program, to come here and ask for a hearing on this bill. I therefore ask the members of the Senate to vote down this motion.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I shall be glad to.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I desire to ask the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure, whether or not this will delay the relief program?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, in my judgment it will not. This bill can be re-reported to the floor of the Senate next Monday evening. I will so urge.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, there has been some reference to the $3,000,000.00 appropriated by the Gelder Bill. I want to say that I discussed it with a State official today, connected with the State Treasurer's office, and he said it is very doubtful whether this $3,000,000.00 is available. If it is not available I contend this will delay the relief program; and I desire to ask the members of this Senate that there be no further delay, that they vote to defeat this motion.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, in a conversation held shortly after noon today we were assured by the Department of Revenue, and by representatives from the Treasury Department, that the $3,000,000.00 would be available.

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I would be pleased to.

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, if Senate Bill No. 717 would be passed today would that provide any more money in the month than you have now?

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, no.

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, would it give you any more money?

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, no.

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, if you are short that money in the month, this bill won't give you any more?

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, $3,000,000.00 has been appropriated for relief, and I have been informed that there are claims prior to this that legally would be paid before this $3,000,000.00 could be used for relief.

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, the $3,000,000.00 that is going to be appropriated by the House, passed by the House—that money will be available, will it not, as soon as it has been passed by the House?

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, my information is to the contrary.

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, no matter then, how soon you pass Senate Bill No. 717, you cannot get the cash in a month or even inside of a year?

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, everyone is aware of the decision of Harry D. Hopkins, Federal Administrator, who demands that a program be passed and indicated the needed amount; and I still contend that this will delay the receipt of money from the Federal Government for the purpose of relief.

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, I still contend that if the House passes the Gelder Bill, Hopkins will be satisfied that there are $3,000,000.00 coming in thirty days.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I still contend that if the money is not available, Harry D. Hopkins will not be satisfied.

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, I still contend that Senate Bill No. 717 will not take care of the situation inside of thirty days. Now, Mr. President, maybe we will be able to settle this question, if it is not available from the Gelder Bill, or No. 717, by holding a Tag Day, and getting it that way. I see no reason for insisting that this bill No. 717 be passed today or Monday; if you pass it Tuesday or Wednesday it will bring in the cash just as quickly as if you passed it today.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, it has been correctly stated here that this bill has been in the House of Representatives since March 24th. Every other bill in the Governor's program had a public hearing at the request of anybody interested. I do not know whether there is sufficient money, or that there will be sufficient money, in the treasury to meet the transfer of $3,000,000.00. I am told—and I don't know how correct it is—that there are five million and some odd thousand dollars in the treasury, of which two million is needed for payroll this week, and that there will be other payrolls coming on, and other expenses occurring daily that might jeopardize the availability of the $3,000,000.00.

I listened to the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure, say that if there were a hearing next Monday this bill could be reported out next Monday night. If that is so I see no purpose in holding a public hearing, because we would not change our minds. If we, perchance, did change our minds, I ask the question: What bill will we substitute for the millions to be produced by this manufacturer's tax?

So that in this struggle to bring about a compromise, I think we will be unwilling to accept responsibility for what might happen if further delay is caused by further compromise. With all due respect to the persons affected by this bill, I think, in fairness to us, they should not have waited until the emergency is so great and then ask us to accept the responsibility for what might follow in times of this kind; and for that reason alone I think we should vote this motion down.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I would like to make one correction in the statement of the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris. It is to the effect that if he is so intimate with the Federal Administrator, he ought to get his name correctly: it is Harry L. Hopkins and not Harry D. Hopkins. He is a real pal.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I have never objected in the past to a hearing on a bill, but this bill is the keystone of the agreement entered into between the Governor and the Republican caucus, and the agreement provided that the manufacturers should be taxed five mills on the dollar. Now, there can be but one purpose in asking for a hearing, and that would be for the purpose of either eliminating these taxes on manufacturers or reduce the taxes, and as Mr. Shaipro has stated, there is no other tax proposed here, or any other method of raising this money, and the hearing would be nugatory unless the agreement, as I said, would be caried out. The three million dollars are not in the treasury today, and for the purpose of getting this appropriation the resolution is being put through the House this week. We all know it was agreed by Mr. Hopkins that if we furnished the three million dollars he would furnish the balance for the month, providing that this Senate would put through such a tax plan that would raise sixty million dollars this year, so that there is nothing for us to do but carry out the agreement, and I do not believe this Senate will breach or break the agreement or contract, which was made between the Governor and the Republican caucus.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I think it is high time that we decide whether or not Harry L. Hopkins is the dictator of Pennsylvania, of whether or not the Senate of Pennsylvania is responsible to the people of the Commonwealth. Mr. Hopkins told us, in a letter of May 6th: "Appreciate your desire to co-operate with the Federal Government in meeting needs of unemployed. Must advise that even though Legislature passes tax measures which would at some future date provide Pennsylvania's share, it will be necessary that an amount of at least three million per month must be made available immediately as a condition for any further grants, with the understanding that this is to be increased up to a total of sixty million for the year, as tax receipts progressively increase."

The Senate of Pennsylvania last week, so as to be on the safe side, and not be in the position of where we could be accused of starving a million and a half people in Pennsylvania, introduced a bill which would appropriate three million dollars from the General Fund. It passed finally this body on Monday. The House had ample opportunity, had it seen fit, to pass that bill on first reading on Monday, second reading on Tuesday, and it would be on final passage today. They delayed it. I understand, however, now that they have passed a resolution saying that they will pass it without any question. Knowing the House as we know it in this Session, that is being done at the request of the Governor's office. That is assurance enough to me that there will be no suspension of relief, because the Governor's office seems to have a direct contact with Washington, but it certainly is high time that Pennsylvania decide whether or not, if necessary, it is going to go on its own, or whether or not we are going to be under the dictates of Washington. As the Senator from Delaware has pointed out, it has been the invariable custom of this body to grant hearings when hearings were requested. I contend that this particular tax is in a class by itself, because the people of the Commonwealth seem to feel that that tax was not going to be introduced in this program, and, as the Senator from Delaware, has further pointed out, it is not going to delay this relief, because the2money we are going to receive from that tax will not be forthcoming within the year. There can be absolutely no harm in giving that hearing, whether or not it results in a different determination by this body. I am very confident that it will not result in any different action, but it may allow those who represent the varied interests, and I contend and have always contended that the people who represent interests in Pennsylvania are entitled to a hearing. It will give them an opportunity to voice their objections, it will give an opportunity to decide whether or not the amendment that was offered by our friend from Philadelphia, who afterwards walked out on the Senator from Erie and myself, so that we do not know whether or not he is for the principle, whether or not it is a sound principle, and whether we should at a future time decide to take the tax off capital stock and put it where, in my judgment, it belongs, on net profits. I can see no reason why we should not pass this motion.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President. In our compromise and agreement made here, and the fact that this hearing, if held, would mean absolutely nothing, if the members of this Senate, and I am satisfied that they will, stick to the agreement made, I cannot see any purpose for it, and I further cannot see any reason why this should be delayed until Monday, for third reading and final passage; we can have a Session one minute after twelve o'clock tonight, and finish this up this week.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I would like to add one word. Our friends on the left have not been entirely consistent and honest with the Republican members of this body in the matter of that agreement. They have attempted to force an action here today that was not in conformity with the agreement, and they voted as a unit in doing so.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I am not going to get into a wrangle with any member of this Senate on the question of good faith and honesty, but I do want to call attention to the fact that we heard nothing of this request from these manufacturers for a hearing until after the resolution calling for the passage of the Gelder bill was passed by the lower House. Now the Gelder bill was approved by all of us this week, and is in the same position in the House in anticipation and with the understanding that this tax program is to be disposed of this week and not go over until next week for any hearing or any purpose, and I appeal to the members of this State Senate to vote down this last minute stand in an attempt to defeat this bill.

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, I think it was unfair of our colleague to intimate that the members of this side of the Chamber have not kept faith with what was known as the "compromise" program. I contend that we have kept faith and it is our purpose to keep faith. I agree with what has been said in relation to the proposed hearing by Senator Law. I, for one, am always willing and always want to be willing to give anybody, any group or any individual, a chance to be heard. Surely any group or any individual has had a chance to be heard on this proposed measure, if they had wished to avail themselves of such an opportunity. This bill has been in this body for some time. It has been before them, and every bill that is submitted or has the possibility of being enacted, and surely if it was of such importance, and it is an important bill, there was an opportunity while it rested in committee for them to come forward, and certainly they would have been granted a hearing, but now, at the last minute, when we are about to consumate a program that I thought was agreed upon, not by every individual member of this Senate, no, but by a group of Republican members with a group of Democratic members, with the Governor. Now, at the last minute, when we are facing a crisis, to attempt to put this bill over, I think is not keeping the faith. Besides, we have illustrations in this Chamber in this very Session, of bills that went back to Committee, that were supposed to be reported out in a very short time, and they have not come out. I do not say that it is the purpose of the members who propose to send this bill back to Committee to bury it there, I do not charge them with that, but I do charge that in sending it back at this time, we are inviting unnecessary delay and inviting possible disaster that should not overtake us.

I say, men, let us finish this, let us pass a program and let us pass it promptly, as we all believe, or at least a majority of us, I am sure, was the real purpose of what we thought was a compromise program.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, the people interested in this bill had every reason to believe that it would not pass the Senate. It never appeared on any of the programs of the Republican Party, and there is a Republican majority in the Senate. Until last Wednesday, it was not seriously considered by the Republicans, and, therefore, that can explain the delay in these gentlemen who have today asked for a hearing on this bill. Now, I briefly want to sum up what I said before, that after twelve o'clock today I was assured by officials of the Administration, members of the Department of Revenue, that three million dollars was available and could be used in the next thirty days for relief. The House has passed a resolution to use that money and to pass a bill promptly. There is no delay of relief going to be caused by granting a hearing to these men, who have made Pennsylvania what Pennsylvania is today. Lesser organizations have come in here and been granted more courtesy by this Senate, and I again urge the members of the Senate to grant a hearing on this bill next Monday afternoon.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. THOMPSON (Centre) and Mr. CAVALCANTE and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—21

MOTION TO POSTPONE BILL

Mr. KANE. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed on the postponed calendar.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. LYNCH. Mr. Speaker, I rise to oppose this motion. This bill has been on the calendar long enough, and I think we ought to dispose of it this morning.

Mr. KANE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to call the attention of the House to the fact that this bill proposes to set the salaries of District Attorneys in the counties of the seventh class. There are a great many of us who feel that the idea is good but that the graduations of salary perhaps are unsatisfactory.

I would like to have the House vote to place this bill on the postponed calendar until the matter can be settled.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was not agreed to.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1900, entitled:

An Act regulating the hearing before boards of view and jury trials and the awards and verdicts in cases arising from the taking injury or destruction of private property under the right of eminent domain where both the owner of the fee and any lessee or lessees under such owner shall claim damages

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?
It was agreed to.
On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have the sponsor of this bill explain its provisions.

Mr. BURKE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, under the present law of condemnation if a property is taken in which there is a tenant, both the owner of the property and the tenant have a right to damages for the taking of the property. As the law now stands, the owner of the property may appear before a board of view and show all the damage that he will suffer by the taking and the owner of the lease, the tenant, may also appear before a board of view and establish his damage.

In case that there is an appeal by the owner of the property and also an appeal by the tenant, the two appeals are heard or tried before separate juries, and you have the owner of the property bringing in his experts, to show the value of the property, and later on before a separate jury the tenant comes in and shows the value of his lease. Under these circumstances the two juries do not have the composite picture, and I know of one instance in the city of Philadelphia in which it cost the city $160,000 more than the total value of the property, because the claims were proven before different juries.

Under this bill the appeal of the owner of the property and the claim of the tenant are heard before one jury. That jury fixes the total amount of damage and they provide the damage beween the owner of the property and the tenant in accordance with the value or with the damage that each of those persons suffer.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Burke.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BURKE. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, if this bill were enacted into law would not the tenant get less damages than he does at the present time.

Mr. BURKE. Mr. Speaker, I would answer that question in the affirmative, most emphatically. I just recited an incident in which the tenant received $160,000 for a property which, according to the opinion of real estate experts was worth only $200,000 and the owner of the fee received $200,000. Now, I think that one jury sitting on an appeal of that kind, having the two claims before them, will not be given to any gesture of charity, because they are playing with the city's money. I don't think the tenant is entitled to more than the value of the lease, and I think that can be best determined by one jury hearing the claim of the owner of the property and the claim of the tenant.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, isn't it a fact that very often one has a lease for many years of time and he makes vast improvements, and that the purpose of this bill is to reduce the damages to the tenant.

Mr. BURKE. Mr. Speaker, that is not my purpose. My purpose is to give the tenant all that he is entitled to but to give him no more.

On the queston recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. FERKO. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. FERKO. Mr. Speaker, on Wednesday May 1, I voted "yea" for House Bill No. 2035 and in the Journal I am recorded as voting, "No." I would like to have that corrected.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 932, Printer's No. 383, on page 34, of today's calendar, bills on third reading postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. ANDREWS.

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 932 entitled:

An Act to enable cities of the third class to adopt the city manager plan of government providing the procedure for the adoption or discontinuance thereof making suitable provisions for the conduct of city government thereunder and in connection therewith imposing certain duties on mayors city councils county commissioners and election officers

And said bill having been read the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the constitution the yeas and nays were taken.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I believe that there should be another roll call, and, in that event, I want to argue the question as to the merits of this bill.

The SPEAKER. The Clerks have informed the Chair that less than a quorum of the members have voted. The Chair will read rule 10, of the House.

"When less than a quorum vote on any subject under the consideration of the House, it shall be the duty of the Speaker forthwith to order the doors of the House to be closed, and that the roll of members be called, by the Clerk, and if it is ascertained that a quorum is present either by answering to their names or by their presence in the House—the yeas and nays shall again be ordered by the Speaker, and if any member present refuses to vote, such refusal shall be deemed a contempt, and unless purged, the Speaker shall order the Sergeant-at-arms to remove said member or members without the bar of the House, and all privileges of membership shall be refused the person or persons so offending, until the contempt be duly purged."

The SPEAKER. The Sergeant-at-arms will now close the doors. The Clerk will proceed with the call of the House.

The roll was called and the members present were as follows:

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INFORMATION

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Delaware will state his question of information.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I want to know when a member of this House is here and still is not here.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman clarify his question?

Mr. TURNER.. Mr. Speaker, I hear a voice answer "here". I looked at the seat of the member and found that he was not there and yet it was was that Member's voice that answered "here".

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will be considered as being in the House.

The Clerks inform the Chair that a quorum is present.

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Cambria will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, is unanimous consent necessary in order to discuss the merits of the bill at this time?

The SPEAKER. Unanimous consent is necessary.

Will the House give its unanimous consent to the gentleman from Cambria to discuss this bill?

Are there objections?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I object.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears objections and consent is not granted.

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a further question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, have I understood the Chair to rule that when a majority of the members of the House do not answer to their names that a call of the House must be had and a new roll called?

The SPEAKER. That is the ruling of the Chair and is the language of the rule which the Chair has just read.

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. ANDREWS. A further question of parliamentary inquiry, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, when the members of the House have not answered to their names, is it in order for any member to rise in his place and object to a majority being announced by the desk?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman state his question more clearly?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, when it is manifest that a majority of the members of the House have not answered to their names, is it in order for any member of the House to call attention to the fact that the members have not answered, and to protest against any count of a majority upon the part of the desk when a majority has not actually answered?

The SPEAKER. The only guide that the Chair has is the official roll submitted to him by the Clerk, and if it is called to his attention that a majority of the members have not voted, he must under the rule close the doors, and take a poll of the House as stated in the rule which the Chair has just read.

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, a further question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. ANDREWS. Is it not, therefore, in order, Mr. Speaker, for any member at any time to raise the point of order against a short roll call?

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order on the parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. We can only discuss one question at a time.

The Chair wishes to inform the gentleman from Cambria that if a member has definite information that a quorum is not voting, he has a right to raise the question.

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were again taken and were as follows:

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2370, entitled

An Act fixing the liability for the expense of care and treatment of patients in tuberculosis sanatoriums maintained by the Commonwealth and providing for the collection of the moneys due the Commonwealth therefor

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. NAGEL. Mr. Speaker, will the sponsor of this bill explain to the members of the House its provisions?

Mr. HOLSTROM. Mr. Speaker, for the information of the members, I would say that this bill was drawn by the Institutional Department of the Department of Revenue and simply provides that where a person is maintained in any tuberculosis sanitorium or colony, that is maintained by the Commonwealth, the estate of such person or his wife, father, mother, or child or children shall be liable for the share of the patient and recovery is had in the same fashion as with any claim of the Commonwealth.

However, where the estate of the aforesaid people is not sufficient to care for the patient, the directors of the poor of the counties from whence he comes are liable for one-half of the expense of the patient, and the Commonwealth bears the other half. If at any time any money is recovered, then one-half goes back to the county and the other half to the Commonwealth.

Mr. NAGEL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Lehigh.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lehigh permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HOLSTROM. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. NAGEL. Mr. Speaker, for my information will the gentleman state whether or not is has been the law or custom for the county to pay their portion heretofore?

Mr. HOLSTROM. Mr. Speaker, this is a new act. I do not know what the procedure has been before.

Mr. NAGEL. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill has to do with institutions maintained by the Commonwealth, and it would appear as has been explained to us that a part of the expense, I believe a half of what is not paid by the patient or by his relatives or by his property must be paid by the county. Of course, I plead ignorance as to what were the laws prior to this time for the reason that I do not know, but it seems that this bill might put a burden on our counties that they are not able to bear, and as this is a state institution it would seem to me that this burden ought to be assumed and carried by the Commonwealth.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE ON RESOLUTION NO. 139

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which Resolution No. 139, Printer's No. 1043 was adopted be reconsidered.

Mr. KILROY. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blumberg vote on the adoption of the resolution?

Mr. BLUMBERG. I voted "aye," Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Kilroy, vote on the adoption of the resolution?

Mr. KILROY. I voted "aye" Mr. Speaker.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, when this resolution was before you about a half hour ago, the House was in great disorder and passed the resolution without any consideration being given to it by those directly affected.

This resolution provides for an investigation of the entire relief situation in the City of Philadelphia and the preamble states that "chaos" exists. That is not so. We believe that in Philadelphia we have as efficient a system for distributing relief as possible.

Of course we all realize that there are defects in the system, which can be corrected. We know that there is a small amount of chiseling. Attention has been directed to these defects and efforts are now being made to remove all the obstacles and for creating what we believe will be the standard for relief distribution in Pennsylvania.

The state administrator is making every effort to coordinate all the relief systems existing in the various counties, and I do not believe that we ought to go further and hamstring the state administrator by having these relief investigations in the various counties. I do not believe that this House ought to go on record as inserting into the bill appropriations for expenses for these committees. I believe the matter is now in control and is having attention. I, therefore, see no necessity for the passage of this resolution.

Mr. CANNON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in answer to the gentleman from Philadelphia as to whether chaos exists in Philadelphia or not, it still remains a fact that the public press recently has printed much on the subject, and there are three different papers from Philadelphia showing the situation in Philadelphia.

As far back as January 14, 1935, Resolution No. 10, was presented to this House and passed this House after roll call, and at that time I again attempted to put those responsible on the spot. If you have your hands in the pie all right.

It has been said on the floor of this House that we will stand here until Hell freezes over. Well, let me say this, if you stay, — — — —

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman refrain from using disorderly language in debate.

Mr. CANNON. Mr. Speaker, is it not of record in the Legislative Journal that the same expression was used in this House, which I have just used here this morning?

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is correct, but disorderly words have no place in debate. The Chair will ask the gentleman to refrain from using them.

Mr. CANNON. I will, Mr. Speaker, with pleasure.

I will say this—yes; I will bring it in another light. It has been said that Our Lord was sold for thirty pieces of silver.

I well remember that one month ago today, the 15th day of April, was the dead line and today I guess the people in Philadelphia and in the Commonwealth, those in distress are again up against the Pilates.

Going back to resolution No. 139, I say that an investigation is necessary, fundamentally necessary in Philadelphia or I would not be so stern in demanding it.

The public press has printed much concerning the matter. I am going to quote to you from the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin of last night. I read the names of the Committee that have been appointed for handling relief not only in the past but who decided to do the same thing in the future, and I say they should not be given the reigns in Philadelphia, I say that the reigns should be taken from them.

I remember seeing a head line in the past that a gentleman from Philadelphia by the name of McCoy had asked the aid of the public in the removing of relief chiselers. How did those relief chislers get there in the first place? If those people in Philadelphia had done their duty, they would not be there. Furthermore, the same gentleman favors the work of a Miss Kahn, who declined an offer to leave the city for the purpose of heading relief work in another large city. Oh, boy!

Another idea conceived! The secretary, Charles A. Waters, who would hold up the entire allotment from Philadelphia. That is his idea to provide aid for the poor, suffering people in Philadelphia. Well, I will still ask for the passage of Resolution No. 139.

I will now go a little further. I told you what was in the press, last night's bulletin. Last Saturday afternoon I was called upon the phone and requested — —

Mr. Speaker I really know that I am up against it, and I expect I might have made a slight error. In regards to being called up on the phone—the phone rang and one of my family called me to the phone, and when I answered the phone, it was a request to meet a committee of relief workers. I hesitated in granting that request, but finally did so. On Sunday they appeared at my home, and they had some thoughts regarding legislation in this House. I told them that they had their duty to perform as relief workers and that I had my duty to do as a Legislator and that I intended to do so

They did not know that I had in my possession a copy of this paper and one of them said that they had an association. Now, what is the relief for, for the unemployed or for an association of relief workers? It cannot be denied that there is a publication called "Associated News," which is published for their own benefit. I want to quote to you right from the publication known as the Associated News which is published by relief workers and organizations that are supposed to be charitably inclined but who are adding a heavy payroll and a heavy burden to this state.

"As we go to press, we learn that the committee elected at the general meeting of January 7th to see Mr. Johnson has had an interview with his in Harrisburg. A detailed report on what our committee told Mr. Johnson regarding salaries, working conditions, et cetera and what Mr. Johnson replied will be given at the next General Meeting on March 11, 1935."

Further I quote:

"Miss Kahn advised to sit tight. The Executive Committee reported to the General Meeting held on January 7th, that when they met Miss Kahn had advised the Association to do nothing. She further stated that should any good results be forthcoming, the association should not take credit for them but should anything go wrong it would be the Associations' fault." And then goes on to show you the conditions—

The SPEAKER. The Chair wishes to inform the House that there is about to be presented a very important resolution in regard to relief and the Chair would ask the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Cannon, to yield for the moment. The Chair will later recognize the gentleman from Philadelphia.

CONSIDERATION OF RESOLUTION POSTPONED

Mr. CANNON. Mr. Speaker, for the benefit of the House and for humanity, I yield at this time until further notice.

I move to postpone the consideration of the resolution temporarily.

The motion was agreed to.

GOVERNOR AUTHORIZED TO APPROPRIATE FUNDS TO EMERGENCY RELIEF

Mr. RUTH asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer a resolution and for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

Whereas, Senate Bill 1289 (House Bill 2856), appropriating to the State Emergency Relief Board the sum of Three Million Dollars ($3,000,000) for unemployment relief, is in the Committee on Appropriations in the House of Representatives, and

Whereas, This bill is impossible of passage until it has been acted upon by the House of Representatives on three legislative days, and

Whereas, It is of vital importance to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and to the unemployment relief situation that Federal Relief Administrator Harry L Hopkins be appraised of the fact that the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania has for unemployment relief expenditure the sum of Three Million Dollars ($3,000,000) for the month of May, now, therefore, be it

Resolved that the House of Representatives hereby authorizes the Governor and the fiscal officers of the Commonwealth to appropriate to the State Emergency Relief Board from the General Fund the sum of Three Million Dollars ($3,000,000), and the House of Representatives hereby pledges that it will pass without amendment Senate Bill 1289 (House Bill 2856) so providing, validating the action of the Governor, and the fiscal officers, in making such appropriation, and the House of Representatives further pledges that it shall so do without delay.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, the resolution just introduced by the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth, and by myself represents the result of a conference just held in the Governor's Office in the past half hour.

The Federal Administrator at Washington insists that Pennsylvania live up to its agreement, to provide three million dollars for unemployment for the ensuing month. As we all know, the tax program or a tax program is on its way from the Senate. Part of the understanding is that three million dollars was to be provided, by the bill Senator Gelder introduced and which was passed by the Senate, Senate Bill 1289, and which is now in the House Appropriation Committee. It is impossible to pass this bill without having three legislative days. However, in order that Washington may be appraised of the fact that the House will so do and that three million dollars will be available as Pennsylvania's share toward unemployment relief for the ensuing months, this resolution asks that you go on record that you will vote for Senate Bill No. 1289 without amendment, and the three million dollars that is being appropriated, except for a possible half month's lapse, would be part of the sixty million dollars, which is the amount set aside for unemployment relief for the next year. I ask the members of the House in order that unemployment relief may not stop in Pennsylvania, because under the insistence of the Federal Administrator at Washington it would stop if these three million dollars was not guaranteed by the state of Pennsylvania to meet the situation as it acutally exists. I want to ask the members of the House to vote "aye" on this resolution.

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin, has covered most of the important factors.

There is one other thing to be said, and that it, that relief would have stopped at one o'clock today, because there was not really ten cents worth of relief in sight at the time of the writing of this resolution. By passing this resolution we can guarantee relief in the Commonwealth until at least the first of June. I ask every member to vote "aye" on this resolution.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I would call the attention of the House to the fact that by reason of the failure to follow proper parliamentary procedure through the enactment of legislation, this House by the pending resolution pledges the Governor and the House to do a perfectly illegal thing.

The Governor has no right under the Constitution or by any statute to take any money out of the general fund for any purpose without authorization upon the part of the Legislature.

This act is a gesture, it is a gesture to cover failure, and it is a gesture that any interested taxpayer could stop over night if he were so disposed.

I am simply rising at this time, Mr. Speaker, to call the attention of the House to the fact that it is time to quit doing illegal things, unconstitutional things for the purpose of dealing with a perfectly definite problem that faces us day by day and for which adequate provisions should be made.

I am quite sure that the gentleman from Philadelphia knows that there is no power in a resolution to appropriate money and that the gentleman from Berks and all of the other members of the House know that this resolution, like the Sardoni resolution, is absolutely without legal effect and that if the Governor of Pennsylvania does take any money out of the General Fund for relief purposes prior to the time that he is properly authorized to do so by this Legislature, he is doing an illegal act, from which he should be restrained.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, there is some degree of merit to the legal contention of the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews.

However, I take it that neither he nor I can set ourselves up as the final arbiter as to what is legal or what is not legal.

I am not so sure that the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania were they called upon to interpret this action might not well say that the emergency that existed demanded some such action as this resolution.

I say very frankly on the record that Washington demands such immediate action, that we are faced with the problem and unless action is taken, relief in Pennsylvania will stop, and if it were not for the exercise of discretion by the Relief Administrator relief would have stopped at one o'clock today.

That action at Washington may or may not have been the proper action; I have my own thoughts with respect to it but whether or not it is proper or improper isn't the question. The question is, what can we do to convince Washington that three million dollars is available for relief. The only possible way we can do it is by this gesture, if you please, or by this resolution pledging ourselves, as we have in the past, that we will appropriate this three million dollars. His Excellency the Governor and the fiscal officers of the Commonwealth can then determine what their course shall be, but our duty lies in the fact that we ought to say to His Excellency the Governor and to the people of Pennsylvania that we are at least going to provide the money. And, as I said at the outset, I believe that the extreme emergency justifies the action that we are taking, and I am not so sure that the Supreme Court if called upon might not, despite the constitutional prohibition, say that it was proper.

I, therefore, ask the membership of this House to vote to meet a serious situation by voting "aye" for the resolution and not being captious at this particular moment.

QUESTION OF INFORMATION

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, will state his question of information.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask if the Gelder bill is in the possession of this House?

The SPEAKER. The Gelder bill is in the possession of a committee of this House, namely, the Appropriations Committee.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the Chairman of the Appropriation Committee if it is proposed to report out the Gelder bill and when?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from York the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee, Mr. Cohen, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. COHEN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, what action has the Appropriation Committee taken with reference to the Gelder bill?

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the Gelder bill, House Bill 2856, Senate Bill 1289, is now in the possession of the Appropriations Committee.

Immediately after the adoption of this resolution, it is proposed to ask the House for consent to permit the Appropriations Committee to meet during the session of the House, and to act upon the bill and report the same favorably to the House for its consideration and for first reading.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I thank the gentleman from York, Mr. Cohen, the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee, and I am continuing to occupy your attention for this single purpose, and very briefly:

I want to protest against the attitude, the point of view expressed by the gentleman from Philadelphia, who would have you believe that this House is doing a very generous thing in order to offset the cruelty with which the Federal Relief Administrator regards Pennsylvania, whereas this House knows that this situation has faced the General Assembly for weeks and that we are now proceeding in desperation, as I have stated, to do an illegal thing, in order to cure the failure promptly to act in a proper legislative parlimentary way, and we are not being generous in the least.

Mr. FLINCHBAUGH. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I hesitate to inject myself into this debate, but I want to call your attention to a historical fact that happened in the state of Pennsylvania.

Some forty years ago in Pennsylvania, after incessant rains for many days, a great dam in the western part of Pennsylvania broke, and a great wall of water came down and swept over the city of Johnstown, the city which the gentleman from Cambria has the honor of representing today. Thousands of lives were lost and thousands of people were made homeless. The great state of Pennsylvania went to the rescue of those people without any delegated Constitutional authority. The then Governor of Pennsylvania took the money out of the General Fund of Pennsylvania without, mark you, any legal authority under the Constitution, without any appropriation by the Legislature of Pennsylvania, because the Legislature was not in session at that time, and a great emergency existed.

People said that the Governor was overstepping his power, but the next Governor of the state of Pennsylvania, who was from Philadelphia, Robert E. Pattison, approved the action of the former Governor of Pennsylvania and asked the Legislature to appropriate this money which the former Governor had taken out of the General Fund.

If it were not for the fact that the then Governor of Pennsylvania exceeded, if you please, his authority, thousands of people would have suffered.

Today the calamity is not only in the city of Johnstown but it is over the entire state of Pennsylvania from one border to the other, and thousands of people are looking to this Legislature for relief, and for succor.

I am not a lawyer and the only legal training I have had has been as a country squire, but I am told that the police powers of the state exceed the written constitutional law and that any government has a right to perpetuate itself, constitutions notwithstanding. In other words, I believe that constitutions were made for man and not man for constitutions. Therefore, I think we will do the wise and proper thing by voting for this resolution and I believe that our action will be approved by the people of this Commonwealth.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I was interested in the statement of the gentleman from Cambria that this condition was known to the House a month ago and that no steps had been taken in the matter.

I would like to refresh the memory of the gentleman from Cambria, or if he will turn to his history I think he will find that on March 26th I presented to this House a set of figures showing the amount of appropriation liability for the balance of the session and that what was needed for unemployment relief was the sum of ten million dollars plus the sum of ten million dollars needed for hospitals and our State educational institutions.

The Democratic leadership in this House refused to permit us to consider that resolution. It was sent to committee and has remained there.

Some two weeks later I again called the attention of this House in a similar resolution to the necessity that was facing us and the crisis that was existing in this State, and the immediate need for raising money, and I asked that a Legislative committee of this House be appointed for the purpose of devising ways and means of raising that money, in order that such an emergency as we are facing today might not happen. Again we were refused at that time consideration of the resolution. It was sent to committee and it has remained there.

I well remember the words of the Democratic floor leader who said that anyone could go and get these figures, that anyone could devise a program, and my reply was that the individual and myself attempted to do some of these things and that it was apparent that it could not be accomplished without joint action on the part of both of us.

Therefore, the responsibility, Mr. Speaker and members of this House, rests with my friends on the other side, for not seeing the contingencies that were going to arise and in not seeing those things that have arisen today and which have placed us in this position.

Therefore, it is not our province now to hesitate. We can not raise technical, legal objections to this resolution, but we should, I think, endorse the resolution and provide for the people of Pennsylvania and let it be a lesson to us and to the rest of the House in the future that when we see long ahead the things that are coming we should not just for partisan reasons prevent the enactment of such measures that will stop conditions of this kind from arising.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am that our friend, the gentleman from Delaware, has injected in this absolutely non-partisan measure.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I think that the gentleman from York. Mr. Cohen, is perfectly justified in making a reply to the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner. I was wondering, however, whether in the interests of the expeditious passage of this resolution, he would not agree to make his reply to Mr. Turner immediately after this resolution has been acted upon. I do not want to shut the gentleman off, and I think that he has a perfect right to reply to Mr. Turner. It is only in the interests of saving time that I would like to ask him to permit it to go over.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I would like to say in reply to the gentleman from Philadelphia that immediately after the passage of this resolution I will ask permission to hold a meeting of the Committee on Appropriations.

My statement would possibly have been already finished if Mr. Witkin had not interrupted me.

Mr. Speaker, I reiterate, I am sorry that the gentleman from Delaware has seen fit to inject partisan politics into a purely non-partisan measure.

The question of who is to blame for the conditions existing in the Commonwealth is not one that could have been rectified by a study of the financial affairs of the Commonwealth. They were ascertained and known to this House, and it is with a great deal of reluctance that in reply to the gentleman from Delaware, I am constrained to say that our present difficulty is due entirely to the failure to enact the sixty million dollar relief program for the year. I do not wish to indicate upon whose shoulders that responsibility lies. I will let that to the membership of this House to decide.

Mr. Speaker, I move the previous queston.

The motion was seconded by Messrs. Simon, Sinwell, Coakley, Rinn, Haberlen, Cason, Sumney, Munley, Coleman, LaRue, Ruth, Moul, Moomaw, Schwab, Panton, Cliff Patterson, Flinchbaugh, Cannon, Walker, Coolahan, Kinney and others.

On the question,
Shall the main question be now put?
It was agree dto.
On the question recurring,
Will the House adopt the resolution?
It was adopted.

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEE TO MEET DURING SESSION OF THE HOUSE

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the Committee on Appropriations be granted permission to meet in the Conference room during the session of the House.

The motion was agreed to.

CONSIDERATION OF RESOLUTION NO. 139 RESUMED

Mr. CANNON. Mr. Speaker, I move that consideration of Resolution No. 139, which was postponed a short time ago, be resumed.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. CANNON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, brief and short, in behalf of humanity I am going to ask the members of this General Assembly to support resolution No. 139. I thank you.

Mr. KILROY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I agree with the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blumberg, that there is no need for an investigation in Philadelphia. It will embarrass the relief administrator and also involve necessary expenses for the Commonwealth. There is already a state relief investigation under way and they will be in Philadelphia shortly.

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I quite agree with the resolution of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Cannon, with one exception; that is, the appropriation for this investigation. I might say that I think the investigation could be held without any appropriation. In Washington County we have met, I believe, about ten times, and the relief department has furnished the necessary stenographic help to the members of the House who are on that investigating committee. We have a report to make and it looks a good deal like a family Bible. I think this resolution for an investigation is all right, with the exception of the matter of appropriation. I would ask Mr. Cannon if he could not eliminate that feature. There is no question at all as to the investigation. It probably would be a good thing. This is not fault finding, it is simply to get to the facts for the benefit of the relief organizations of the State of Pennsylvania.

Mr. CANNON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I consider that resolution No. 139 is beneficial to the city of Philadelphia, and in response to the gentleman's request, Mr. John E. Brown, I will say that I would be willing to have the resolution go through without an appropriation, so that those in distress could get what belongs to them.

MOTION TO TABLE

Mr. CANNON. Mr. Speaker, I move, therefore, that this resolution be laid upon the table until it can be amended.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared the "nays" appear to have it.

Whereupon, a division was called for, forty-six members voting the in the affirmative and seventy in the negative, the question was determined in the negative and the motion was not agreed to. ,

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House on account of the appropriation involved in this resolution, I ask the members of the House to vote against the resolution.

Mr. CANNON. Mr. Speaker, I readily realize what I am up against and so do the people of Philadelphia, and I won't withdraw the resolution until the bitter end. Let them defeat it or do whatever they wish and they will go on record and the people will know where they stand in regard to humanity, Democrat or Republican. Socialist or anyone else.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was not adopted.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 13, 1935.

Whereas, Dissatisfaction with the administration of direct and work relief is widespread in the County of Berks, and

Whereas, Allegations are being made that the Berks County Emergency Relief Board and the United States Employment Bureau and other agencies dealing with relief are not using their powers consistent with the best interests of those in need, and

Whereas, Although misery is widespread it is charged that improper and incompetent personnel is being employed, that political activity is being indulged in and aid is being granted on a political basis, husbands and wives are both employed, or one employed when the other has employment elsewhere, that the members of the immediate family of public officials drawing salaries of several thousand dollars annually are given jobs, and that political friends of other politicians have been induced to give up private employment and accept jobs as foremen at substantially increased pay while equally qualified unemployed are forced to exist upon food vouchers.

Resolved, That the Speaker of the House of Representatives is hereby authorized to appoint a committee of five members of the House whose duty it shall be to thoroughly and impartially investigate the Berks County Emergency Relief Board and the United States Employment Bureau in said county or any other governmental agency dealing with relief and the personnel thereof with a view of determining whether the allegations set forth in the preamble hereof are true and to make report thereof to the House of Representatives as early as possible, at this or the next Session of the Legislature.

Resolved, That the said committee shall have power o issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman requesting and commanding any person or persons to appear before them and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person and shall have the force and effect of subpoenas issued out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of said committee shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before the committee. STATEMENT BY MR. WELLIVER

Mr. WELLIVER asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, forty years ago I was driven out of this House by fire and smoke. This morning I was locked out of the House.

I want to say to my good friend, Mr. Turner, that the parliamentary rules are the same today as they were forty years ago, and I want to thank you, Mr. Speaker, for having decided in my favor.

Anybody who may not be in his seat when the roll is called should be up there in the haymow. "When the roll is called up yonder, I'll be there."

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2544, entitled:

An act to amend the act approved the second day of June, one thousand nine hundred fifteen (P. L. 762), as amended, entitled "An act providing for the creation and administration of a State Fund for the insurance of compensation for injuries to employes of subscribers thereto; declaring false oaths by the subscribers to be misdemeanors; and providing penalties for the violation thereof," by authorizing the State Workmens' Insurance Board to pay dividends in such proportion as it may determine; by giving the said board the right to reject any risk; and by authorizing the State Fund to write any form of workmen's compensation or employers' liability insurance.

On the question,

Will the House agreed to the bill on third reading?

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Kobelak, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. KOBELAK. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask whether under this bill it is possible that the situation would arise where an individual in the Commonwealth, an employer, could not get compensation insurance as required under the present Compensation Act.

Mr. KOBELAK. I believe it could, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman believe that is advisable?

Mr. KOBELAK. Mr. Speaker, it would be necessary to protect the fund.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, as I understand our present Workmen's Compensation Act, practically all employers in the Commonwealth are required to carry compensation insurance. Under Section 14 of this Act there is a proviso that the Board of the State Workmen's Fund may do the same thing that private companies are going nowadays; it is common to refuse to assume the risk of any particular employer. I submit that this is very unwise for the reason that the risks that are refused by the private carrier are most likely to be hazardous risks, and consequently these companies refuse them. Now if we permitted the State Workmen's Board to do the same thing, we will find that that particular class of employers who necessarily need the insurance most will be unable to get the compensation insurance, and for that reason I ask the members of the House not to support this bill.

Mr. KOBELAK. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this has been an Act since 1915, except that this part has been put in; where the employer is able to correct certain hazardous conditions of the employe, he will be able to insure under the Workmen's Compensation Act. There have only been a few amendments made to this bill. I ask the members of the House to go along with this bill.

Mr. SHEPARD. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Kobelak, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. KOBELAK. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. SHEPARD. Mr. Speaker, under the amendment to the present law, will it not be possible for the State Insurance company or the Compensation Board to reject risks upon the same basis that private insurance companies reject risks for similar reasons?

Mr. KOBELAK. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SHEPARD. Mr. Speaker, a great many private insurance companies will reject risks merely on the basis of color or race. Will the State Insurance Board be permitted to reject them for the same reason?

Mr. KOBELAK. Mr. Speaker, I am sure they would not, in the first place because the basis of race, color or creed would be unconstitutional.

Mr. SHEPARD. Mr. Speaker, it certainly is not unconstitutional for a private insurance company to reject a risk on the basis of race, religion, or color, and if this is giving the State Insurance Board the same power, then, of course, it would be possible for the State to do it.

Mr. KOBELAK. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Shepard, they never have used that particular thing at all. They probably used some other reason; not race or color.

Mr. SHEPARD. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Allegheny if he would not permit this bill to go over in its order, because of the fact that under the present conditions there may be enough liberal sentiment in the state of Pennsylvania to bank on the fact that such a thing may not happen, but, of course, things we think won't happen sometimes do happen. I would like to have a thorough understanding about this matter, and I am sure that if the matter is properly adjusted we would not oppose it. If the gentleman would permit it to go over until next week, we can get some information about ir from the insurance companies and from the Attorney General's office, to see just what will be the effect of such an amendment.

Mr. KOBELAK. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman from Philadelphia, I am really surprised that he should take that side of the question, for the reason that if anyone has been very liberal about color or race it has certainly been this administration. This administration has appointed for the first time since the inception of this Commonwealth a colored Referee in the city of Pittsburgh and also a colored Assistant Deputy Attorney General for the State of Pennsylvania. I do not see why the gentleman should be afraid about the race question in connection with this bill.

Mr. SHEPARD. Mr. Speaker, I may say that what the gentleman says is perfectly true, but we are not legislating merely for this administration. This is to become an important law upon the statute books of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and while we may have some assurance because of the present administration, we don't know how long this administration is going to last. I hope it will last forever, but we do not know that, and in order to be prepared for any eventualities, it may not be necessary to have any amendments. I am just asking that we may have time to look over that point, if the gentleman will permit this bill to go over in its regular order until next week.

Mr. KOBELAK. Mr. Speaker, I ask that this bill be passed over in its order until the objection is straightened out.

The SPEAKER. The bill will be passed over in its order.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2126, entitled:

A Supplement to an act approved the twenty-sixth day of July, one thousand nine hundred thirteen (Pamphlet Laws, one thousand three hundred seventy-four), entitled "An act defining public service companies; and providing for their regulation by prescribing and defining, and limiting their powers, and regulating their incorporation, and, to a limited extent, regulating municipal corporations engaged or about to engage in the business of public service companies; creating and establishing a Public Service Commission for the regulation aforesaid; prescribing and defining the powers and duties of such commission and its officers, including the exclusive power to regulate the construction, alteration, relocation, or abolition of the crossings of railroad corporations, street railway corporations, or other public service companies; and of public highways by the tracks or other facilities of said companies; providing for the ascertainment by the commission of the expense and damages resulting from such construction, alteration, relocation, or abolition, and for the payment of such expenses and damages, severally or proprotionately, by the public service companies interested, the State, or municipal corporation concerned, and giving persons whose property is thereby taken injured, or destroyed, authority to sue the Commonwealth for damages in such cases; providing for the terms, salaries, and compensation of the members of the commission, its officers, counsel, and employes; prescribing and regulating the practice and procedure before such commission, and upon appeal and judicial review of its orders and determinations by the courts of common pleas; and giving the court of common pleas of Dauphin County exclusive jurisdiction of such appeals in certain cases, and of all injunctions, mandamus, or other appropriate proceedings to enforce the provisions of this act and the orders of the commission, and to restrain such order, subject to an appeal to the Supreme Court; prescribing penalties, fines, and imprisonment for the violation of the provisions of this act and for the violation of the orders of said commission making it the duty of the Public Service Commission to enforce the provisions of the act approved the nineteenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and eleven, entitled 'An act to promote the safety of travelers and employes on railroads, by compelling common carriers by railroad to properly man their trains,' by amending section nine thereof repealing the act approved the thirty-first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and seven, which provided for the appointment of the Pennsylvania State Railroad Commission; and sections one and two of the act approved the fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, entitled 'An act to enforce the provisions of the seventeenth article of the Constitution, relative to railroads and canals'; and an act, entitled 'To provide the maximum car service charges, including car storage charges, that railroad companies and corporations, or associations, may charge and collect on each car loading, and not unloaded within the free time for unloading cars, and fixing the free time that shall be allowed for unloading cars,' approved twenty-fourth day of May, Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and seven and the proviso of clause three and the provisos of clause seven of section thirty-four of the act, entitled 'An act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of certain corporations,' approved the twenty-ninth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, and all other legislation inconsistent with or supplied by this act," by requiring open bidding on certain contracts of public service companies having the power of eminent domain.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

Shall the bill pass finally?

STATEMENT BY MR. WITKIN.

Mr. WITKIN asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I note that a number of men are leaving, believing that it will not be necessary for this House to meet tomorrow. No one knows better than I how unpopular it is for one to stand here and point out to you the necessity of having a session tomorrow particularly those who have made arrangements by reason of the belief that there is no necessity for a session. I have just been in consultation with a number of gentlemen from the Senate. The Senate is going to meet tomorrow at 10 o'clock in the morning for the purpose of finally passing a number of tax measures that have been agreed upon. It is highly important that this House does not appear in the position of delaying the final passage of that part of the tax program irrespective of whether we are for or against the particular taxes. We all ought to be there either to concur in or non-concur in the amendments made by the Senate. The bills will come over here with amendments, and action of the House will be necessary and I therefore suggest that we do not adjourn for the week and I urge upon the membership of the House because it is of vital importance that we be here to vote upon these measures.

I want to state in that connection, in order that I may not be misconstrued, that that does not mean that the Republican membership of the House are for or against any particular amendment. I merely make the statement because of the fact and in the interest of the fact that we all ought to be here to consider them, and it would be a reflection upon this House were the Senate to pass the measures and we were not here to concur or non-concur in the amendments. I make this statement reluctantly because I do not want to be personally responsible for forcing a session tomorrow, but I think it is of the utmost important.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2212 as follows

An Act to further amend section five hundred and fifty of the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred nine) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" by authorizing the acceptance of a fidelity bond in lieu of surety bond from tax collectors in school districts of the second class and providing when liability on such bond shall cease

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section five hundred and fifty of the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred nine) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith as amended by section twenty-one of the act approved the first day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws one thousand one hundred fifty-two) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 550 (a) Every person appointed or elected collector of school taxes in any school district of the second third or fourth class in this Commonwealth in addition to any bonds that he may now be required by law to give and before receiving his tax duplicate and warrant to collect said school taxes shall furnish to the school district a proper bond in an amount to be fixed by the board of school directors with such surety or sureties as it may approve conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties as such tax collector

(b) In lieu of furnishing such a bond the tax collector may file his own collateral bond in such amount as may be required by the board of school directors secured by an actual deposit with the board of school directors or with any bank or trust company within the Commonwealth which may be agreed upon of any of the securities which depositories may use to secure the deposit of school funds as herein provided The total market value of the securities thus deposited shall equal the amount of the collateral bond Such collateral bond shall be conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties as tax collector The securities thus deposited shall constitute a trust fund to be available for the satisfaction of any liability accruing upon the collateral bond The securities shall be accompanied by a proper assignment or power of attorney for their transfer Such trust deposit in the event of any depreciation in its value shall be maintained upon request in writing of the board of school directors at the amount provided herein The board of school directors may permit the tax collector to substitute for any one or more bonds or obligations included in any such securities other bonds or obligations as long as the new securities meet the requirements of this act

(c) In school districts of the second class the board of school directors may in lieu of a surety bond accept a fidelity bond conditioned upon the accounting for and payment over of all moneys received by him as taxes and the accounting for all tax items contained in his duplicate which remain uncollected The tax collector and his sureties shall be discharged from further liability on any bond as soon as all tax items contained in the duplicate are either (1) collected and paid over or (2) certified to the board of school directors for entry as liens in the office of the prothonotary or (3) returned to the county commissioners for sale or (4) the tax collector is exonerated from the collection thereof

(d) In case any person elected or appointed tax collector shall fail to furnish a proper bond with the proper sureties or securities within fifteen days after his appointment or notice so to do then in any such case the board of school directors shall appoint another suitable person as collector of the school taxes in said district in his place and stead who upon giving the proper bond with the proper sureties or securities required by the provisions of this act shall be the duly authorized person to collect the school taxes in said district for the ensuing school year

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HOLSTROM. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have the sponsor of this bill just explain it.

Mr. AUKERMAN. Mr. Speaker, the provisions of this bill provide that a fidelity bond may be accepted by school districts of the second class in lieu of a surety bond. At the present time a surety bond is required in the City of Altoona which I represent. It means a premium of about $4,000 a year on a surety bond, providing that the tax collector will collect one hundred per cent of the tax duplicate. Under present conditions this is impossible. Therefore, when it comes to a point where the collector can no longer collect any more of the duplicate the school district is forced to exonerate him from the balance of the uncollected duplicate, or else the insurance company will not renew his bond. Therefore, school districts must accept these terms and exonerate the uncollected portion of the duplicate, and therefore his surety bond is not valid. Under the provisions of this act, a fidelity bond, guaranteeing the faithful performance of his duty, may be accepted in lieu of a surety bond. This is not a mandatory measure but is purely an enabling act. I ask the members of the House to support it.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken as follows, viz:

STATEMENT BY MR. WITKIN.

Mr. WITKIN asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I do not believe that I am so popular that I can afford to become unpopular by reason of being the probably cause of making you sit here tomorrow. I can assure you that there is no desire on my part to be here tomorrow, but I knew the urgency of the situation, and perhaps the other members did not. I dislike to be the cause, the primary or the proximate cause, of making you sit here, but I did it because of the situation and because I knew that it was important for you to be here, and I think you ought to be here tomorrow.
